31-Mile Jap Gain in India

By JAMES E. BROWN

NEW DELHI, April 7 (INS)—Japanese invasion forces already within 49 miles of the main Allied lifeline to northern Burma after a rapid 31-mile advance, posed a new threat to a vital communications network today by stabbing beyond the strategic Imphal-Kohima highway.

The main enemy thrust, developing speedily in the region north of the Imphal supply base, took on a new aspect when Japanese units crossed the road to Kohima despite Allied defense.

An official statement issued by Admiral Mountbatten described the enemy infiltration as "slight" and added, "our troops are in contact with them."

To the south, near Imphal itself, small-scale attacks by the enemy were crushed and within Burma the Allies continued to score new successes on major fronts.

In the Assam sector, Allied patrols struck in force at overstrained Jap communications west of the Chindwin river, while farther north other units made contact with the retreating enemy south of the Tiang river on the road from Sumprabum to Myitkyina.

Nearby, American-trained Chinese units attacked the enemy within the village of Wakawng in the Mogaung valley.

To the southwest the Allies captured the eastern tunnel of the Maungdaw-Buthidaung road in a heavy engagement which saw fresh tank units offer valuable support. American heavy bombers simultaneously attacked the Burma-Siam rail line, destroying three bridges and probably destroying five others.

The enemy column, driving in the Kohima area some 60 miles above Imphal, posed an increased threat to the Allied-held Assam-Bengal railroad just at a time when Imphal itself had been reinforced by the arrival of the 17th Indian Division.

Nazis Hurl All To Hold Odessa

By HENRY C. CASSIDY

MOSCOW, April 7 (AP)—The Germans have rushed special units into line with orders to defend Odessa at "any cost" and are battling on the close approaches to that Black Sea port from favorable positions behind the many lagoons and lakes protecting the stronghold, Red Star dispatches reported today.

While the Germans struck out in strong counter-attacks from the almost beleaguered base, Russian Stormovik planes and bombers pounded at the city's defenses and escape lines of communications.

Three hundred miles to the northwest the Russians engaged in stiff battles against large groups of tanks, infantry and self-propelled guns sent to rescue another besieged German garrison at Tarnopal.

FIGHTING IN TARNOPOL

The attack was launched from German-held territory southwest of Tarnopol, the Russian bulletin said, and came after Marshall Zhukov's First Ukrainian Army had captured more than half of the area within the city. Street fighting has been reported going on since Monday.

Attempts to lift the siege were repulsed with heavy losses, the communique announced, but added that fierce fighting is continuing.

The Germans, it appeared, were attempting to rescue both the Tarnopol garrison and the remnants of 15 divisions encircled in the Skala sector northeast of Czernowitz and have thrown formidable forces into the drive to crack the Red Army cordons.

Zhukov's troops, however, were reported to have tightened their ring of encirclement near Skala by capturing important defense strong points, including the fortified town of Skala itself.

The Russian communique announced the capture of huge stocks of war booty in the Skala fighting.

STRIKE FOR ODESSA

Three hundred miles southeast of Tarnopol, Gen. Malinovsky's Third Ukrainian Army struck toward Odessa in a 15-mile drive from captured Razdelnaya, which brought it to a point 23 miles northwest of the Black sea port.

Malinovsky's drive drew closer the Red army ring being forged around the beleaguered port.

Inside the rapidly constricting arc, harassed Germans and Rumanian troops were being herded closer to the shores of the Black sea and their last remaining escape corridor across the Dniester estuary, 20 miles southwest of Odessa.

U. S. Hits Zagreb Anzio War Lags

By LYNN HEINZERLING

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS Naples, April 7 (AP) — Heavy bombers of the U. S. 15th Air Force again attacked a Balkan target yesterday, hammering this time at a German airfield in the Croatian capital of Zagreb as ground action on all Italian fronts remained at a virtual standstill.

Zagreb was vigorously defended by some 120 German planes. Sixteen were shot down in battles over northern Yugoslavia, headquarters announced, and three heavy bombers were lost.

An announcement from headquarters said that on the Anzio beachhead a strong German patrol attacked an Allied position a mile and a half south of Carroceto last night but was driven back by grenades and small arms fire. Fifth Army artillery and tank destroyers blasted enemy gun positions there during the day.

A dispatch sent from the beachhead last night by Associated Press War Correspondent Kenneth L. Dixon said the Germans had ringed the Allies defenses with several huge guns capable of combing the entire beachhead from the front line to the coast.

Guard Fort Fire Peril

Soldiers of Ft. Ruckman, Nahant, were on guard today against grass fires near the military reservation, after a spark from a brush blaze set fire to the officers' headquarters of the fort.

Dozen Zeros KO'd By Yanks in China

CHUNGKING, April 7 (AP)—Nine Zeros were shot down, three probably were downed and three were damaged from a 32-plane Jap fighter-bomber force which attacked an Allied airdrome at Nanning in Kwangsi Province, April 5, Gen. Stillwell's headquarters disclosed today.

Reds Dive-Bomb Finnish Port

NEW YORK, April 7 (INS)—Thirty Russian dive-bombers, with fighter escort, were reported by the Finnish radio to have attacked the port of Otka on the Gulf of Finland today.

The Finnish broadcast, heard by FCC, said there were "casualties and material damage."

CHECK-UP FOR INVASION—Ninth Air Force Mustang fighter pilots based in England check with intelligence officer on European targets being blasted in pre-invasion bombings of Nazi-held Europe. New Englanders checking map are (l. to r.) Sergt. F. A. LaCroix of Winooski, Vt.; Lieut. W. F. Higgins of Boston, Corp. Jack Galeng of Worcester, Lieut. John Konopka of Bristol, Ct., and Lieut. Arthur F. Brown of Boston, intelligence officer.

Invasion General Says

Losses Will be Small

By JAMES F. KING

WITH AN AMERICAN INFANTRY DIVISION IN ENGLAND, April 7 (AP)—Lieut.-Gen. Omar N. Bradley told American officers preparing for the invasion of Europe today that "this stuff about tremendous losses is tommy-rot."

"The success of the whole war depends on this operation and I have no fear of its outcome," the commander of American ground forces in the United Kingdom assured officers who will lead the doughboys intto action.

"When the time comes you will be surprised by teh naval gunfire and air power we have.

"Some of you won't come back, but it will be very few.

"In the Tunisian campaign we lost only an average of three or four men to 1000, and certainly seeing a show like this ought to be worth that chance.

"They say Barnum and Bailey had the greatest show on earth, but that will be only a sideshow compared to the one you will be in. When you men get up to fight you will be scared, but it will be up to you to get up and lead your men in attack.

"Put your men in the right frame of mind. You can't surrender in warfare. Fight it out to the last ammunitions. The enemy might be as bad off as you are. It is much better to do that than to be made prisoner.

"I have heard rumors that 90 per cent of us wouldn't come back," he continued.

"That is tommyrot. I think you are lucky to have this opportunity and I am happy to be with you. We have the best soldiers and best equipment and more of it than the Germans ever dreamed of. After a few days of it you won't have anything to worry about."

He urged them not to "condemn your men too quickly if they show fear in the early stages" but to "exert your leadership and lead them forward."

Warning that "the German will play dirty," Bradley said:

"I know of cases where he has booby-trapped the dead. Don't trust him very far. Sometimes they will come out waving white flags and then open fire on you."

Kwangtung Puppet Chief Slain, Japs Say

NEW YORK, April 7 (AP)—The Japanese Domei agency reported today Chen Yao-Tsu, puppet governor of Kwangtung province in China, had died Wednesday of gunshot wounds inflicted by "Chungking terrorists" as he was passing through Canton. He was 51.

RAF Hits Ruhr In Night Forays

LONDON, April 7 (AP)—Striking anew at targets previously flattened by British heavy bombers, RAF Mosquitos attacked oft-battered Hamburg and other objectives in the Ruhr and Rhineland last night in the resumption of a campaign designed to thwart German efforts to reconstruct much-needed war industries.

The stab into the heavy-defended industrial area of the Reich by the all-wood bombers, now capable of carrying 4000 pounds of explosives, was made at the cost of one plane.

Apparently it was the only blow aimed last night at the continent from the west, but shortly before noon today the German radio warned that "single enemy planes" were over northern Germany.

It was the speedy Mosquitos third foray over Germany this month and their 26th night assault on the Reich since the first of March.

250-Plane Raid On Hollandia

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, Southwest Pacific, April 7 (AP)—A 250-plane raid against Hollandia in Dutch New Guinea testified today to the steady westward movement of the war against Japan.

Hollandia caught 320 tons of bombs and 250,000 rounds of ammunition from this formidable force of war planes. The attack, which occurred Wednesday, followed up a great smash at the enemy base on the New Guinea coast Sunday, when 400 tons were dropped. That assault wiped out the remnants of a 288-plane fleet gathered by the Japanese.

Not one enemy plane rose to fight the Allied planes in the Wednesday attack.

Dewey to Gain Willkie Votes

WASHINGTON, April 7 (AP)—The difficult road that lies ahead for any dark horse hopefuls was impressed on Republicans today as a result of Wendell L. Willkie's retirement from the race for the party's presidential nomination.

With Willkie out of the running, a swing appeared under way for Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York. Definite indications developed that Dewey would collect a major share of the support which Willkie renounced.

Among these was the prediction of Sen. Danaher (R.) of Connecticut that most of Connecticut's 16 uninstructed delegates, to be selected next week, would favor Dewey. Willkie's greatest preconvention strength was in New England and it is there that other candidates would have to make inroads if they hoped to transfer his support to themselves.

There were some Republicans who had envisioned the possibility that Dewey and Willkie would present almost equal strength on the first ballot. Any such result, they said, might lead to one of those convention deadlocks from which dark horses spring galloping.

This was the frankly expressed hope of Sen. Vandenberg (R.) of Michigan, who has been saying that the Republicans ought to nominate Gen. Douglas MacArthur. The Southwest Pacific commander, Vandenberg contends, is the only man who successfully could oppose President Roosevelt on what promises to be one of the major campaign issues, the Democratic argument against electing an inexperienced man as commander-in-chief.

But the quick surge to Dewey appeared likely to scuttle any such movement, despite the three votes MacArthur picked up in Wisconsin. There was some doubt in various states where the Willkie delegates would go, but the professional Republican minority in the South seemed primed to board the New York Governor's bandwagon.

Gov. John W. Bricker of Ohio generally has been credited with strength in the South, largely on the assumption that his friend Sen. Taft (R.) of Ohio, could deliver some of the 1940 Southern Taft following to him.

Bound for White Sulphur Springs, Va., for a rest and to avoid publicity, Mrs. Lucille Burton, mother of slain Patricia Burton Lonergan, leaves a New York hotel accompanied by her grandson, Wayne W. Lonergan, who is carried by his nurse, Elizabeth Black. Mrs. Burton hopes to obtain legal custody of the child.

Skelton A1,1A, But Can't Wed

LOS ANGELES, April 7 (AP)—Comedian Richard (Red) Skelton has his quip for almost every occasion, but when he walked into the marriage license bureau with Muriel Chase, blond film actress, the gag was on him.

He didn't have the required health certificates.

But Skelton and Miss Chase, daughter of the late Charles E. Brodenharn, Evansville, Ind., casket manufacturer, filled out their applications, each giving the age of 30. They were told to return with the certificates before the license would be issued.

"Why, I'm in A-1 condition, or at least 1-A," was the immediate Skelton reaction. He explained that he recently passed his Army physical examination.

The comedian told newsmen that he and Miss Chase would obtain the health certificates, required by California law, today and would be married in a day or so.

Edna Marie Skelton, the comedian's first wife, who continues as his gag writer and advisor, obtained a final decree of divorce from him last Feb. 18 on charges of mental cruelty.

Miss Chase said she was divorced about five years ago from Eugene R. Chase Los Angeles accountant.

Chelsea Dump Fire Raging

Most of Chelsea and Everett was under a pall of disagreeably odorsome smoke today, as firemen from the two cities and two engine companies from Boston battled a blaze fanning out over a large area at the William st. dump, Chelsea, near the Everett line.

The dump is near Second st., where the catastrophic Chelsea fire of 1908 originated.

Chief Charles M. Voke of the Chelsea department called help from Boston and Eyrett as a precautionary measure. Engine Co. 5 responded from East Boston, Engine Co. 50 from Charlestown.

Long-smoldering fires under the dump's surface broke out so strongly the area itself was barely visible through the smoke, which billowed through Chelsea and Everett sts. in thick clouds that slowed traffic and assailed pedestrian nostrils.

40,000 to Hear Auckland Mass

AUCKLAND, N. Z., April 7 (INS)—One of the largest field masses ever sponsored by the American Army in this war will be celebrated Sunday when more than 10,000 U. S. and New Zealand servicemen celebrate a special Easter mass in Auckland.

The mass, in which 30,000 civilians also will take part, will be conducted by the Rev. John K. Connelly of California, formerly chaplain of the Hawaiian department. Deacon of the mass will be the Rev. John P. Mohoney of Vermont, with the Rev. Hervem Trevaol of California as sub-deacon and the Rev. John F. Culliton of Connecticut as master of ceremonies.

Russians Interested In Willkie Quitting

MOSCOW, April 7 (AP)—Wendell Willkie's withdrawal as a presidential candidate was noted with interest today by Russian newspaper readers, but there was no editorial comment reflecting the Kremlin's attitude toward the campaign.

Most people here, however, seem to believe President Roosevelt is sure of renomination and with Willkie out of the running they figure the campaign is all but over. Gov. Dewey and other possible candidates, except perhaps Gen. MacArthur, are virtually unknown to Russians.

Woman Dies in Weymouth Fire

Trapped in her three-room bungalow, Mrs. Mary Moore, 53, was burned to death early today when flames destroyed the structure in Albert rd., East Weymouth.

Neighbors who were awakened by flames called the fire department, but when firemen reached the scene the small house was beyond saving. Mrs. Moore was missed and a search of the still smoking ruins disclosed her body, burned almost beyond recognition, in what had been the bedroom.

Medical Examiner Robert R. Ryan, after viewing the body, ordered it moved to the Mortimer Peck undertaking rooms in East Weymouth and said he would perform an autopsy.

Meanwhile, State Fire Inspector Theodore Johnson began investigation of the fire, whose cause was undetermined.

Weymouth police said her husband, William Moore, was thought to be living in Boston.

Willkie in N. Y.: To Resume Law

NEW YORK, April 7 (INS)—Wendell L. Willkie reached the end of his political trail today with the quiet announcement he soon would resume the practice of law in New York city.

Arriving home from a disastrous midwestern campaign tour which he interrupted by withdrawing from the race for the Republican Presidential nomination, Willkie told newsmen he had no plans for his political future.

Asked if he would support New York's Gov. Thomas E. Dewey in the event the latter won the Republican nomination, as now seems probable, Willkie merely laughed.

"I said everything I had to say about politics in Omaha," he said.

Hoover O. K.'s Dewey

WASHINGTON, April 7 (INS)—Former President Herbert Hoover has informed friends in Washington, it was disclosed today, that he would be "entirely satisfied" with nomination of Gov. Thomas Dewey of New York as the Republican presidential candidate.

2 Sailors Killed, 4 Hurt in Crash

Two sailors were killed and four others injured early today when their automobile crashed into the rear of a parked truck in Washington st., Stoughton.

All six sailors were stationed at the Portsmouth, R. I., naval base. The dead were identified by police as Karl Lunden, 30, who was killed instantly, and Arthur De Greco, 19, who died in the Stoughton police ambulance.

The injured were first taken by police to Brockton Hospital and then removed by naval authorities to Chelsea Naval Hospital. They are Reynauld LePage, 22, who has serious head injuries; Thomas Dyer, 36, dislocated back; Paul Holden and R. L. Avery, 17, who were less seriously hurt. Police had no home addresses of the victims.

The accident happened near Stoughton sq., and the sailors' car was demolished, police reported.

Fair Easter!

Those Easter bonnets and finery will be safe on Sunday, so far as the elements are concerned, the Weather Bureau assured today, but there will be a snap in the air and the temperature probably won't go above 50 degrees.

If rain falls tomorrow, don't be discouraged, because rain is expected. However, the prospect is that this rain will cease Saturday night and the skies will be doing a good job of clearing by dawn of Easter Sunday.

Quota All Set, Hershey Sees No Letup in Draft

WASHINGTON, April 7 (AP)—Draft Director Lewis B. Hershey declares that only with the backing of military strength will the voice of the United States be heard at the peace table.

Coincident with the announcement that the Army today is at its planned maximum strength of 7,700,000, Gen. Hershey indicated that huge monthly quotas of men will be poured into the draft mill almost indefinitely.

He said that 150,000 men a month—"a very conservative estimate"—would be required merely to maintain the Army and Navy at full strength in war time and he hinted that many inductions might be required even after the war.

PREPARED TO FIGHT

"To maintain the results for which we have fought," he said, "depends to a very large degree upon the evidences we possess that we are prepared to back with force our recommendations. Many of us, probably most of us, regret that force is the ultimate court of appeal. Certainly America, with possessions unusual in this world, can not afford to shut her eyes to the fact that this world leaves to a nation only those things for which it is not only willing to fight, but for which it is constantly prepared to fight.

"Adherence to this principle will mean that we evolve a permanent system for our armed forces that will provide at all times adequate military strength."

Army and Navy announcements indicated that around 200,000 a month—roughly the rate of the last few months—would have to be taken between now and July 1.

NO SLACKENING SEEN

Even then, no tremendous slackening in the induction pace could be foreseen. Accurate estimates of how many men will fall in invasion operations were impossible. But Gen. Hershey said he believed 150,000 men a month would be required to fill gaps resulting not only from battle but from "normal" discharges due to accidents disease and disabilities.

The Army, in its announcement, cautioned draft boards not to relax their efforts to deliver the maximum possible number of young men and said "this will require continuous pressure on industry and agriculture to eliminate all but the vitally essential deferments between the ages of 18 and 26."

"As future calls on Selective Service will be for replacements" the Army stated, "it is imperative that new men inducted into the Army be young and physically qualified for the rigors of combat duty."

CAPT. VINCENT M. CANTELLA
Roslindale Marine Commended

Roslindale Marine Cited for Bravery

For "outstanding coolness and professional skill" as commissary officer in the Bougainville campaign, Marine Capt. Vincent M. Cantella, formerly engaged in the investment banking business in Boston, has received high commendation, a delayed Marine Corps dispatch revealed today.

Maj.-Gen. Allen Hal Turnage, commander of the Third Marine Division which established the beachhead in the northern Solomons, praised the officer's bravery while under frequent enemy aerial and artillery bombardment and said his organizing ability was largely responsible for keeping the division well supplied with balanced rations.

Capt. Cantella, graduated from Boston University in 1939, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Cantella, Beech st., Roslindale.

2 Senators Fight 4-F Labor Draft

WASHINGTON, April 7 (INS)—The proposal to place 4-F's in labor battalions was denounced today by two Senators, with indications a bitter Senate fight would be made against the plan if approved by the House.

Sen. Danaher (R.) of Connecticut, declared he would oppose any measure to "put 4-F's on the garbage detail," while Sen. Willis (R.) of Indiana, asserted "the people are not in the mood for much more autocratic power for the administration."

In the House, however, Rep. Martin (R.) of Iowa, House military affairs committee members, called on the armed forces and selective service to put a 4-F manpower draft into effect immediately, without awaiting legislation. Martin declared additional laws are unneeded.

Named Malden Chief for 60 Days

William F. Sheridan, Jr., 34, Malden embalmer, today was given a provisional appointment as Malden police commissioner by Mayor John D. McCarthy to succeed Frank J. Noonan, who died in office recently.

Sheridan's appointment will terminate in 60 days unless the board of aldermen act favorably on his nomination for a permanent appointment submitted earlier this week by McCarthy. Under the charter the nomination for the full term was tabled for two weeks.

Sheridan, a close friend of McCarthy, lives in Fellsway East, and is a native of Lewiston, Me. He is unmarried.

Gas, Shoe Coupons Cut by OPA Dole

NORTH ADAMS, April 7—A new OPA policy of dealing out supplementary ration stamps in small amounts was blamed today for a shortage of gasoline and shoe coupons among local rationing boards, especially coupons for off-the-highway use of gasoline.

Many farmers have been forced to delay their spring plowing, while an estimated 100 persons in this part of Berkshire County will have no stamps with which to buy Easter shoes.

Coal Declarations Sent to Dealers

In preparation for a new coal distribution program which will go into effect next Monday, 1,000,000 copies of a new consumer declaration form for householders were being sent to dealers throughout New England today.

The program will be based on that followed last winter, with no additional cuts in coal or coke allotments for buyers.

Attack He Forgot Gets Him Jail

Not for the life of him, could he remember walking out of a McDonough sq. cafe and clouting two peaceable strangers so hard they were taken to a hospital, said Stanley Kench, 27, of Nelson st., in Lynn court today.

Judge Ralph W. Reeve nevertheless sentenced him to two months for assault and battery and fined him $5 for drunkenness. Kench appealed and bail was set at $2000.

The complainants were Aloysius Witzell and Charles Hodgkins, both of Western ave. They said they were standing outside the safe, minding their own business and enjoying it, when out stepped Kench. Without a word, he began to belabor them, they said.

At Lynn Hospital five stitches were taken in Witzell's face and head. Hodgkins was treated for cuts.

Saved in Marblehead, Sea Victim Recovers

War Prisoners' Kin Rally for Bataan Day

By PAULINE WARREN

Eager for an opportunity to pool their efforts on behalf of American boys in Japanese prison camps, hundreds of prisoners' relatives are planning to attend the first meeting of the Prisoners-of-War Next-of-Kin Club next Sunday, at 2 p. m., in the Hall of Flags, at the State House, prior to the 3 o'clock Bataan Day exercises on Douglas MacArthur Mall in Boston Common.

Acceptances to Mayor Tobin's invitations to this first meeting and Bataan Day exercises indicate that more than 400 relatives will be present.

Most of the letters stress heartfelt thanks for this honoring of the boys who fought valiantly in the Philippines, against bitter odds, until they were taken prisoners by the Japs.

TYPICAL LETTER

Here is one which is typical:

"I am in receipt of the invitation of His Honor the Mayor to be present at the Bataan Day exercises and the Relatives' Meeting in the Hall of Flags. I would like to have you reserve six seats for my family if possible.

"I think it is a wonderful thing to let us know that our brothers, fathers, and sons have not been forgotten while they have been languishing for more than two years in Japanese prison camps.

Yours truly,
(Miss) Anna Liskowsky,
Washington Ave.,
Chelsea, Mass.

And another, selected at random: To His Honor, the Mayor:

"I regret very much my inability to accept your kind invitation to be present at the exercises, commemorating Bataan Day, on Douglas MacArthur Mall, Boston Common, Sunday, April ninth.

"It would be rather difficult for me to reach the Hall of Flags at the State House as I go about in a wheel chair.

My son, Pvt. Lawrence E. Whittemore, enlisted Oct. 9, 1940, in the U. S. Army Air Corps. Trained at Fort Slocumb, N. Y., for three months, then sailed for Manila Jan. 4, 1941. He was stationed at Nichols Field when Bataan surrendered. At present he is a prisoner of war at the Philippine Military Camp No. 2 at Davao, on the island of Mindanao.

"We have heard only twice from him in two years. An Imperial Japanese postcard brought the messages and we were so grateful to know he was alive.

"There will be about nine of his relatives who will enjoy attending the exercises and the meeting.

"He has a little daughter 8 years old.

"I am a widow and he is my only son.

WILL BE IN FIRST RANK

"Yours very sincerely,
"Adele M. Whittemore,
"Warren ave., Wollaston."

Capt. Eleanor M. Gould, head of the Red Cross Motor Corps for Quincy, Mrs. Whittemore will be driven in a special Red Cross vehicle to the Boston Common and will be in the first rank of honored guests.

The Winthrop chapter of the Red Cross is also co-operating and Capt. Edwina B. Beattie has arranged to transport several guests to the exercises.

Even the few who will not be able to attend are sending messages such as the one written by Mr. and Mrs. John Irving of Holyoke:

"Owing to sickness, we will be unable to attend, but our hearts go out to all the mothers and fathers that will be with you on Sunday—Bataan Day."

Allied Officials Join Bataan Rite

Officials of Allied nations, forced under the yoke of invaders, will join in impressive exercises on Boston Common Sunday afternoon when Boston commemorates the second anniversary of the fall of Bataan.

Invitations to participate in the program were extended to consuls and other officials of the nations who are linked with the United States in the war against the Axis, by Mayor Tobin.

The exercises will take place on MacArthur mall of the Common, in the presence of a large number of distinguished guests, following a military parade starting at 2:30 p. m. from Massachusetts ave. and Beacon st.

Col. John J. Carew, Medford's hero of two wars, will act as chief marshal through the co-operation of the War Dept., and in the line of march will be details from the Army, Navy, Marines and Coast Guard, with WAVES, WACs, SPARS and Women Marines, as well as service bands.

Hundreds of mothers and other relatives of Bataan heroes will review the parade as special guests of Gov. Saltonstall and Mayor Tobin at the State House, and will occupy a section reserved for them at the exercises on the Common, which start at 3 p. m.

R. I. Judgeships Due

PROVIDENCE, April 7—Gov. McGrath was expected to appoint a chief judge and an associate for the new juvenile court established by an act of the General Assembly.

VANDER WYK DENIES GUILT

Nattily clad and well-groomed, Henry D. Vander Wyk, oil executive of Winchester, pleaded innocent in a firm voice today in Middlesex superior court to an indictment charging him with manslaughter in the strange death of his wife, Rena, 48, on March 18.

Mrs. Vander Wyk's crushed, negligee-clad body was found in the driveway of their home in High st., Winchester, and authorities allege an automobile twice passed over her.

The wealthy oil company executive also pleaded innocent to three other indictments, charging him with operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor, operating to endanger, and leaving the scene of an accident after causing personal injury.

His counsel, Francis T. Leahy, waived reading of the indictments and then obtained agreement of Dist. Atty. Bradford to continue the bail in $15,000.

No date was set by Judge Francis J. Good for trial.

Saugus Official To Tell Hug Story

SALEM, April 7—Delmont E. Goding, Saugus town official, will take the witness stand in his own defense Monday when trial resumes in superior court here in the $10,000 damage suit brought against him by Evelyn Turner, 23-year-old former night club cigarette girl, who charges she was hurled from his car after she repulsed his hug-and-kiss advances.

Defense witnesses testified that the girl was intoxicated and boisterous and that she flung her arms about the neck of a physician who treated her for a head injury shortly after she claims she was thrown from the Saugus assessor's auto last May 18.

Dr. James A. Clark of Saugus told Judge Raoul H. Beaudreau and a jury that the girl was brought to his office by a former police officer about 2 a. m.

"She appeared under the influence of liquor and was noisy, boisterous and unsteady on her feet," the doctor said. "She kept throwing her arms around my neck every time I tried to treat the wound on her head, and I had to ask the police officer to hold her hands and seat her in a chair while I washed the wound."

Quincy Proprietor's Death Ruled Suicide

A medical examiner's verdict of suicide was returned today in the death of Frank Gomes, Quincy restaurant proprietor, whose body was found on the bank of the Neponset river near the Squantum Naval Air Station.

Gomes' establishment was closed recently after he was convicted of selling liquor during illegal hours.

Stores to Observe 'Low-Point Week'

Stores throughout Greater Boston and Massachusetts will observe "No-Point, Low-Point Foods Week" next week, when large quantities of goods of little or no ration point value will be placed on sale at attractive prices.

Gov. Saltonstall, in a proclamation designating the special week, called on all citizens to purchase and use more of these foods.

'Snow White' Test Deadline Is Near

As the deadline approaches in the "New England Princess Snow White" contest in which the winner will be given a $1000 cash prize, applications are pouring in from the New England States. Tomorrow night, midnight, is the latest that applications will be accepted.

The contest, open to any young girl or woman with an unusual singing voice, is being sponsored by RKO-Radio Pictures, Walt Disney Productions, Inc., and the Record - American - Sunday Advertiser in connection with the 50-city New England premiere of Walt Disney's "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs." The picture opens in Boston at the Normandie and Majestic Theaters next Friday, April 14th.

THERE'S STILL TIME

Any girl or woman desirous of entering the voice contest still has time to send in her name and address to the Snow White Editor, Record - American - Sunday Advertiser, 5 Winthrop sq., Boston, 6, Mass. Each contest applicant will then be sent a card setting an appointment for her audition.

A contestant may sing any song she chooses. Her song does not have to be from the score of "Snow White," although the lilting, romantic music from the picture is beloved by people the world over and such songs as "Some Day My Prince Will Come," "One Song" and "Heigh-Ho, Heigh-Ho" is part of the repertoire of many important vocal artists.

AUDITIONS NEXT WEEK

Auditions for the "Snow White" contest will take place next week at the Yankee Network Studio, 21 Brookline ave., Boston. On the evening of April 14, the lucky winner of the $1000 cash prize will be announced.

An important committee of New England musical authorities is being formed to act as judges.

Russian Church Challenges Pope

By HENRY C. CASSIDY

MOSCOW, April 7 (AP)—The Metropolitan Sergei of Moscow, the Patriarch of all Russia, challenged the position of the Pope today as Vicar of Christ.

In an article entitled "Is There a Vicar of Christ on Earth?" published in the Journal of Moscow, the head of the Russian Orthodox Church cited Biblical texts to reach a conclusion in the negative.

Recalling Christ's farewell address to the apostles, "I am with you always" (St. Mark 28:20), the Patriarch said this meant that, although Jesus had physically abandoned the earth, He never spiritually abandoned the church.

The Patriarch's article, reaffirming the traditional principles of the Orthodox Church, opposed squarely the conception of the authority of the Pope as Christ's vicar.

The Metropolitan said it was conceivable that there might be a central authority to administer ecclesiastic activities or that a union of churches might be formed around a leader as, for example, a president of a universal council of bishops, chosen from among bishops of world capitals.

"That might be practical without insisting on the danger of giving any man exposed to temptation such power," he said.

(Sergei, now 76, was elected Patriarch of Moscow and all Russia last September. A week later the Russian Church gave its blessing to Soviet rule.)

Senate to Sift Kellems Case

WASHINGTON, April 7 (AP)—Sen. Reed (R.) of Kansas called today for a Senate investigation into "allegations of unpatriotic conduct" against Miss Vivien Kellems, 46-year-old Westport, Ct., war plant operator, and also into her countercharges that her mail had been tampered with.

Reed announced he would ask the inquiry be made by the Senate postoffice committee, of which he is the ranking Republican member.

"I shall propose that the Senate committee on postoffices and post roads inquire of the Department of Justice, including the FBI, and of the Department of State and any or all other departments of the government, whether or not they have developed, or have any knowledge of, any illegal or seditious activities on the part of Miss Kellems," Reed said.

CITES MAIL CHARGES

Referring to charges made on the House floor by Rep. Coffee (D.) of Washington that Miss Kellems had made "seditious" speeches criticizing federal tax policies and had carried on a correspondence with Count Frederick Karl von Zedlitz, whom Coffee called a "Nazi agent" in Argentina, Reed's statement continued:

"There has been much in the public press recently about allegations of unpatriotic conduct on the part of Miss Kellems, a manufacturer of Connecticut, whose plant is largely engaged in production of war material.

"In turn, Miss Kellems alleges that her private mail has been tampered with. . . .

"Censorship of communications between citizens or non-citizens of this country and citizens or non-citizens of foreign countries is not only desirable but necessary in war time. No possible criticism is being made of proper censorship. Violation of the integrity of the mail of citizens not having any relation to the war effort is quite another thing.

LETTERS TO COUNT

"There is no warrant in law anywhere for such violation of the mail of private citizens."

Rep. Coffee read on the House floor a week ago excerpts from letters he said were written by Miss Kellems to Count von Zedlitz at Buenos Aires. In describing the count as a "Nazi," Coffee said Miss Kellems had been in "constant contact" with him, while at the same time her plant was "engaged in work for the armed forces of a highly restricted and confidential nature."

Miss Kellems denounced Coffee's accusations as "lies" and said Count von Zedlitz was a friend who was "not a member of the Nazi party."

Jailed Doctor Denies Charge

Dr. Harry J. Weintraub, 58, of Salem st., Malden, was taken into Middlesex superior court today from East Cambridge jail and pleaded not guilty to an indictment charging illegal surgery in the death of Mrs. Ethel Shapiro Levenson, 27-year-old wife of a sailor.

John Cosco, 30, of Cresent st., Chelsea, pleaded innocent to an indictment charging him with being an accessory before and after the fact to the allaged surgery.

No date was set for trial and Weinstraub was returned to jail, where he is s erving a one-year term after pleading guilty to performing illegal surgery on an Everett mother.

Catholics, Protestants Hold Solemn Good Friday Rites

Commemorating Christ's passion and crucifixion for the redemption of mankind, Catholic and Protestant churches of Greater Boston today held solemn Good Friday services as thousands of the faithful devoted this saddest day on the religious calendar to meditation and prayer.

Beginning with the Mass of the Pre-Sanctified in Catholic churches this morning—at which the extra host consecrated at Holy Thursday masses was used—today's devotions included the traditional three hours devotions from noon to 3 p. m., commemorating Christ's three-hour agony on the Cross; afternoon Stations of the Cross for children, and evening prayers and sermons on the Passion.

In sharp contrast to the festive Holy Thursday services and flower-decked altars, today's somber note was reflected in altars stripped of lihens, in silenced organs and bells, and in tabernacle doors flung open to denote the departed Christ.

Three hours devotions were scheduled today in most Catholic and many Protestant churches, with sermons based on Christ's Seven Last Words. At St. Mary's Church, North End, the Rev. James M. Gavin, S. J., director of Sacred Heart devotions of the New England Province of the Society of Jesus, was speaker. The Rev. Joseph R. Maxwell, S. J., president of Holy Cross College, delivered the sermon at Immaculate Conception Church.

"Good Friday Victories," was the theme of Dean Van Etten's sermon at Protestant three-hour services at the Cathedral Church of St. Paul, while Dr. Phillips Endecott Osgood spoke at similar devotions at Emmaneul Church.

Tomorrow, with solemn high masses, Catholic churches will observe Holy Saturday, marking the end of Holy Week and the Lenten season. Blessing of the new fire and the paschal candle will precede the masses.

Arlington Flier Listed As Missing Is Dead

Previously listed as missing in action on a flight between India and China, Capt. Edward Higgins, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Higgins of Arlington, an officer in the Air Transport Command who held the Distinguished Flying Cross, is now reported dead.

War Easter

WASHINGTON (AP) — Easter observances by the troops overseas will be heard by relatives and friends at home next Sunday. Messages from members of the armed forces, music by a chorus from a touring Army show now in Italy and by a Negro chorus in England will be included in the Army hour radio program, NBC, beginning at 3:30 p. m., E. W. T., the War Department announced.

Bishop Spellman In Plea for Faith

NEW YORK, April 7 (AP)—A plea to Americans to uphold the ideals of peace and good will so that the fallen soldier of this war "will not have died in vain" is the Easter message of Archbishop Francis J. Spellman in the current Collier's.

The Archbishop who, as military vicar of the armed forces of the United States, last year toured the European and African war zones, recalls his Easter visit to the Holy Land and draws a parallel between Christ and the soldier of today in the struggle for human salvation.

FAILS TO RETURN

The soldier is watching the return of planes from a raiding mission. A pilot he had known back home was due to go home on leave. He did not return.

Instead, relates the archbishop, "into the sun and the silence he had flown, to become like another victor-victim who once lived and died for something good—for 'peace on earth to men of good will!'

"The full moon is rising. The soldier and eleven men go to the Mount of Olives and into the garden of Gethsemane. Overpowered by grief and the awareness of man's unceasing inhumanity to man, the soldier falls upon the ground and prays and sweats with blood; as men of peace, soldiers today, fall upon their battlegrounds and pray and sweat with blood."

And then the crucifixion, Archbishop Spellman muses, as he thinks of the sacrifices of today's soldiers.

HORRIFIED, SADDENED

"Nineteen centuries have passed and I find myself walking with him in the Holy Land as he looks, this Eastertide, upon war's desolation from earth's end to end.

"The Man of Peace is horrified and saddened to witness tyranny invading, prostrating, crushing men and mankind, brutalizing humanity in order more brutally to kill, ravage and destroy.

"Will complete darkness blanket the earth? Will it always be night? The answer rests with man."

Fire Laid to Cigarette

Fire officials today blamed a carelessly tossed cigarette for a basement blaze in a five-story apartment house in Garden st., West End, which forced 20 persons to flee to the street when smoke poured through the building.

Bricker Spurs GOP Drive After Willkie Withdrawal

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 7—Gov. John W. Bricker of Ohio served notice he would increase the tempo of his candidacy for the Republican presidential nomination following the withdrawal of Wendell L. Willkie from the contest.

In an address before the nonpartisan Indianapolis Press Club the Ohio governor announced he would speak frankly on all current issues.

Governor Bricker approved of participation of the United States in a world court with reservations.

"This suggestion is based upon the maintaining at all times of the integrity of our own governmental structure and on the respect for the sovereignty, not only of our nation, but of the other nations of the world as sovereign nations," he said.

"In our international dealings, we should always be motivated by what is good for America and what is good for us will be good for the other nations of the world that are like-minded to us."

Governor Bricker predicted a sweeping Republican victory

"The American people are ready for a change and are determined upon a change," he said. "This is evidenced in the recent elections, in the way people talk, and in the fact that a lot of the border states are now coming over to our side."

Take Good Care Of Ration Books!

WASHINGTON, April 7 (AP)—The Office of Price Administration today urged housewives to take good care of their ration books because the replacement supply is limited.

Book four, the agency reminded, will be in use about three times as long as earlier food books. Only airplane stamp 1 for shoes is currently good in book three but other stamps in the book may be designated for use later, OPA said.

Book one will be withdrawn from use with the expiration of shoe stamp 18, good through April 30.

British Strike Evil Worst Since 1926

LONDON, April 7 (AP)—The volcanic labor situation is erupting with every indication that 1944 will be the worst strike year since the paralyzing 1926 general walkout.

The number of work days lost through strikes has increased sharply since 1940. Last year was the second worst year for strikes in Britain's history. With more than 1,000,000 work days lost, walkouts during March, 1944, alone cost more production than the whole year of 1941.

The 200 strikes of September, 1943—up to then the worst month of the war—involved only 90,000 men. More than that were idle in a single strike this March and in another this month.

The walkouts have had this in common: (1) Most of them have been unauthorized and have, in fact, been opposed by the union leadership; and (2) the coal fields—chief trouble spot of the past two decades—have been the scene of at least half the strikes.

Thus there has developed under the wartime essential works order the seemingly contradictory situation that workers, frozen to their jobs, cannot quit, be fired, or change employment and cannot be late or absent without being liable to fines, but can walk out on strike.

Maj. Gwilym Lloyd George, fuel minister, told the Commons on April 6 that the Yorkshire strike already had cost over 1,000,000 tons of coal, had stopped all coal export to neutrals and had necessitated a 20 per cent curtailment in gas supply and a 10 per cent cut in electric power to all industries, including war plants.

Pulpwood Men Ask Prisoner-Workers

NORTH ADAMS, April 7 — Chairman Irving Earle of the Area Victory Pulpwood Committee revealed today that his group has appealed to the War Department to establish a base camp for prisoners of war at the abandoned Savoy State Forest CCC camp so prisoners might be used to cut pulpwood.

Earle said he had been informed that a base camp could not be set up for less than 250 prisoners, and that a survey is now under way to determine how many prisoners could be utilized.

Big Export to South

WASHINGTON, April 7 (INS)—Partially lifting the secrecy which had been imposed on wartime foreign trade, the Department of Commerce revealed today that this country exported to Latin America last year goods valued at more than 800 million dollars.

Wavell in Calcutta After Bengal Tour

NEW YORK, April 7 (INS)—Lord Wavell, Viceroy of India, accompanied by his wife, arrived in Calcutta last night after a three-day tour of eastern Bengal, the British radio said today in a broadcast heard by CBS.

Wavell visited British and Indian military hospitals and Army and Air Force bases during the tour, the announcer added.

Meat Shortage? Not by Figures!

WASHINGTON, April 7 (AP)—Chops, stews, steaks and roasts were served on American dinner tables during the last three months at a higher rate than any year since 1908—and will drop only slightly during April, May and June.

Despite wartime rationing—and complaints of local shortages of certain cuts of meat—the average civilian during the first six months of this year will have kept the butcher going at a busier clip than any year since 1924.

War Food Administration officials explained today the 5,091,300,000 pounds of meat allocated to civilians for the first quarter represented an annual per capita rate of 158 pounds, the highest since 1908.

Boy's Body Hunted

ANDOVER, April 7 — Police, firemen and volunteers searched the flooded Shawsheen river today for trace of the body of Robert Dumont, 7, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Dumont of Tewksbury st., who fell into the water while playing.

400 Get Demands To Clean Grounds

City Health Commr. G. Lynde Gately today directed 22 constables from his department and an additional 10 from the public works department to serve 400 tenants and property owners with papers demanding that they clean up yards within 24 hours or face court action.

Already, more than 1500 similar warnings have been issued in the "Boston Clean by Easter" drive, Dr. Gately disclosed. He said that if the 24-hour notice is disregarded, health officials are authorized to obtain warrants immediately for the arrests of the offenders.

Seven persons faced trial this morning in city courts on charges arising from the clean-up campaign. In the latest cases of the kind, two men were fined a total of $150 in South Boston district court.

WHEN YOU FEEL

"SO TIRED YOU COULD SCREAM"

It isn't always lack of sleep or overwork that causes fatigue. Often that awful tired feeling can be traced to "nutritional anemia"—caused by a shortage of iron in the blood.

In such cases, a good iron tonic like Pepto-Mangan may be all you need to help you get back your vitality, endurance and healthy color.

Pepto-Mangan replenishes whatever iron your blood may be lacking—helps to give it that rich redness so essential for radiant pep and vigor.

When the blood is low in iron; many doctors recommend—and thousands of men, women and children praise the beneficial effects of—

Seder Services Inaugurate Observance of Passover

Commemorating the exodus of the Israelites from Egypt, the traditional Passover observance starts at sundown in Jewish homes throughout Greater Boston tonight with family Seder services.

The Seder service in the home features the recitation of the Haggadah, or Passover Story as members of the family gather around the festive board.

Jewish servicemen will be guests in many Boston homes and at various temples and synagogues where community Seders will be held.

The first and last days of the eight-day Passover celebration are regarded as sacred and special synagogues and temples.

Freedom will be the theme of sermons by most rabbis at the Saturday services since the Passover holidays are a period of dedication to the principles of freedom and faith and a renewal of hope in the reestablisiment of the ancient homeland.

Seder services will also be held tonight and tomorrow evening for patients at Beth Israel Hospital and the chronic ill at the Jewish Memorial Hospital in Roxbury.

A special service will be held on Sunday, the second day of Passover, at Temple Tefila, Roxbury, to inaugurate its 85th anniversary. A jubilee address will be given by Rabbi Herman H. Rubinovitz at 10:30 a. m.

Dig Wisely to Save Your Back, Expert's Warning

By FOSTER H. WEISS

Head, Market Gardening Department, Norfolk County Agricultural School, and director of the Record-American-Sunday Advertiser demonstration garden on Boston Common.

As the ground dries, the time approaches for the annual task of spading up the garden and one way to save yourself some back aches is to do this work a little at a time, digging only what you need for early crops first.

Although some authors have recently stated that soils do not need to be plowed or spaded we still feel that it is necessary. A thorough job of turning over the soil and breaking the clods will make the work easier later.

Garden soil should be spaded from 8 to 12 inches deep depending on the amount of top soil. Turn each spadeful over and pulverize well before turning the next spadeful. Then rake thoroughly before the lumps get too hard. A firm seed bed is essential and will not be found in gardens where careless digging is carried on. Experiment a little until you learn how to do the job well.

If you are planning to grow squash, especially the winter varities, it will be well to again check the amount of room needed. One hill of Hubbard squash requires about 100 square feet of garden space and does not return enough to the average small gardener. This crop is also seriously damaged by the squash vine borer in some sections. In medium-sized gardens a few hills of butternut squash will give a good return.

Soil testing is still necessary on some plots, but if you expect to get your soil tested in time to add lime while you are preparing the soil it should be done at once. Large samples of soil are not necessary.

Those who are starting out on new land that has not been used for some time can safely add 25 pounds of ground limestone per 1000 square feet. If you limed last year I would suggest that you do not add lime unless you have the soil tested.

STABBED IN THE BACK BY ARTHRITIS

NOW is the time of the year when Arthritis is on the loose, stabbing victims after victim with its deadly daggar of pain. If you are one of those unfortunate people, here is important information for you to know. Many people suffering from nagging arthritis pains in back, knees, shoulders and hands, never suspect that these pains may be caused, in some cases, by excessive acids within the body.

As a dietary aid in the faulty neutralization of these excessive acids, which in turn may tend to bring specific pain relief to this extent, Vig-Ore Sodeom Tablets were devised by a well-known food nutritionist. Vig-Ore Sodeom Tablets contain food sodium and food iodine, two minerals of nutritional value which may prove to be helpful to many arthritis sufferers. Vig-Ore Sodeom Tablets are free from all harmful chemical drugs. They positively do not contain injurious ingredients of any kind.

CUT OUT THIS ADVERTISEMENT and present it with $1.98 at any Nature Food Centres Store to get your Vig-Ore Sodeom Tablets. Take them as directed on the label and if they do not bring speeding relief to your aching joints and muscles faster than any other dietary aid you have ever used, THE TRIAL IS FREE! Just return the bottle and get your money back. Vig-Ore Sodeom Tablets cost only a few cents a day to use. 240 Tablet Bottle—$1.98. (500 Tablet Economy Size, $3.25.) Mail orders post paid. An Opportunity Is Overlooked

(Reprinted From the Wichita (Kansas) Beacon)

AMERICA may be overlooking a real opportunity to obtain MORE HUMANE TREATMENT of our prisoners of war, who are so unfortunate as to be held by the Japanese.

The influence of Premier Marshal Stalin of Russia, which country is NOT AT WAR AGAINST JAPAN, might accomplish what otherwise has failed of accomplishment.

Russia and Japan are FRIENDLY, one to the other. At least, they are not warring against each other. They are even said to be TRADING CERTAIN RESOURCES because of their peaceful understanding.

This being true, there is seen no more hopeful avenue through which to work for the relief of our war prisoners who are being starved, brutally treated and sent to their deaths by the atrocious Japs.

America has two outstanding men who should be able to open and carry on negotiations for the use by Marshal Stalin of his good offices for betterment of Japanese treatment of Americans captured and held by the slant-eyed Orientals, whose SAVAGERY TOWARD PRISONERS shocks the civilized world.

These men are Joseph E. Davies, former United States Ambassador to Russia, and Joseph C. Grew, former United States Ambassador to Japan.

Davies is said to be a TRUSTED PERSONAL FRIEND of the Russian premier and marshal.

RUSSIA'S WAR against the Germans has attained its mounting successes very largely THROUGH SUPPLIES AND OTHER AID given the Russians BY THE UNITED STATES.

Our contributions to Russian victories over the Nazis are momentous.

Many times Marshal Stalin officially has given recognition to the support his forces have received from America.

WITHOUT THIS AID FROM AMERICA, THE RUSSIAN ARMIES PROBABLY WOULD NOT BE IN THE BALKANS TODAY and continuing their forward and unslacking speed toward Berlin.

It would not be too much to ask Stalin, in return for what we have done for his cause, to use his influence in an attempt to humanize the Japs to the extent that they would cease their CRUEL TREATMENT of helpless American prisoners.

The Russian war leader might be able, through his peaceful relations with the Japanese, to secure for tortured Americans the same degree of humane consideration that AMERICA IS GIVING TO THE JAPS HELD IN THIS COUNTRY.

WE PROVIDE the best of treatment for interned Japs. They are given modern shelter and the best of food.

Their food is even better than that enjoyed by many Americans.

In the face of America's HUMANE TREATMENT OF JAPS, Americans who are imprisoned by the Japs still are enduring the WORST TREATMENT THE FANATICAL MINDS OF THE JAPS CAN CONCEIVE.

America should not longer overlook its opportunity to enlist Marshal Stalin in this urgent cause.

If he, as the representative of a power friendly to the Japanese, could obtain humane consideration for American war prisoners, now dying in Japanese horror chambers, it would be one of the noblest achievements of World War II.

It is an effort that should be MADE IMMEDIATELY.

We are indifferent to this REAL OPPORTUNITY TO DO SOMETHING for our brave defenders who suffer Jap barbarities.

Whole World Mourns

OF ALL the days in the Christian calendar this is the saddest. Catholics and Protestants, true to customs and traditions that have endured for nearly two thousand years, unite in grief for the death of Christ.

Once more in spirit they walk with Jesus to Calvary; again behold the nailed hands, pierced heart and thorn-crowned head; again hear the cry that Time will never still:

"Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do."

Would that we of today really understood that plea.

Would that we possessed the strength of mind and greatness of soul to turn from our enemies, look to the Father in Heaven and say, "Forgive! Forgive!"

If only half of the world's people were that kind of men and women, our troubles—personal, national and international—would end in a day.

Certainly a civilization so founded on truth and genuine honesty would never tolerate such evils as persecutions and war.

In it there could be only peace—and godly happiness.

That is the lesson of Good Friday, a lesson this troubled earth needs now more than ever before.

For until we learn it, and PRACTICE IT, individually and collectively, we can neither have nor expect spiritual grace or lasting peace.

Bill has been in this country 39 years. He is now 57. The reason he is so healthy is because of his wife's cooking. She is of Pennsylvania Dutch origin. Helis started as an ordinary worker in the oil fields and battled his way up to his present opulence.

ALMOST CONFIDENTIAL: A New Yorker says evidently a punctured eardrum doesn't make everybody 4-F. His brother has a perforated eardrum, was passed A-1 and is now in the Army . . . Our campaign against females using male names seems a complete flop in Hollywood. Some of the cinema cuties are even giving up the feminine first name their parents bestowed on them and are taking a male first name. As for example, Ramsay Ames, whose real name is Rita Rebecca Philips . . . Mary McDowell, who is six feet, two inches tall, should be quite an inspiring example to tall girls who think their height is a handicap to success in love and life. Mary has had a Broadway and Hollywood career and is now about to marry a Texas millionaire.

WOMEN, ETC.: Realizing women with figures like Venus were much in the minority, Lena Bryant decided to cater exclusively to the plumper females and from that idea developed what is now a $32,000,000-a-year business. An organization catering exclusively to tall women should do well from now on. The girls are getting taller all the time. The average height of the woman of the future, according to men of science, will be six feet.

VINCENT LOPEZ, the bandmaster whose hobby is star gazing and numerology, gets a dollar a word for writing on those subjects for an astrology magazine. Mr. Lopez predicts the war with Germany will end in the latter part of 1944 and that Japan will be "crushed" in 1945. He also says the Russians will not invade Germany but will be content with driving the Germans from Russian soil.

My Day — By Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt

WASHINGTON, Thursday, April 6—We have been back in Washington just a week and two days, and every day I have been looking for spring. The forsythia bush on the White House lawn shows a delicate yellow, the magnolia blossoms are faintly pink, and many other shrubs suggest that the time has come for them to burst into bloom. But the other night we had snow and a sudden clap of thunder, and I begin to agree with one of my friends who wrote me that if we could have two days of the same season, her cold might disappear.

The President hasn't been well, but he is getting steadily better. He has had bronchitis and he has been weary, but I think it is probably as much the weariness that assails everyone who grasps the full meaning of war, as it is a physical ailment. One cannot quite get over it. One can only accommodate oneself to the burden and pray for the day when the war will end victoriously.

★ ★ ★

I SPENT A DAY in New York City and reported to the USO on the clubs which I visited on my trip. I also saw two plays. One, "Jacobowsky and the Colonel" is a quiet war play which the Theater Guild has produced. The original play was by Franz Werfel. The cast is excellent and the dialogue delightful, but the play never stirred me very deeply.

Then I saw Edward Chodorov's play, "Decision." It left me far more unhappy than the other play, though it dealt with just one phase of our home front. This is a phase which many of us know little or nothing about, but which deeply troubles any of us who have even had a glimpse of it. It shows the Fascist side of our communities.

Hollywood . . . . By Louella O. Parsons

HOLLYWOOD, April 7—While all Hollywood has been busy discussing the break between Hal Wallis and Warner Brothers, Jack Warner has been busy assigning the Wallis pictures to other producers.

As early as Wednesday morning Jack Chertok was already at work on "Conspirators," the picture Hal was making when he left. Chertok has also been assigned "The Corn Is Green," starring Bette Davis, and Irving Rapter, who has been on suspension, has been recalled to direct. Henry Blanke gets Vicki Baum's "Hotel Berlin," the movie which Wallis went to New York to discuss with Herman Shumlin. According to Jack Warner, Shumlin gets here May 1 to direct.

Bette Davis

Of the remaining two Wallis' pictures, "God Is My Co-Pilot," is to be produced by Robert Buckner, while Arthur Swartz gets the Cole Porter story, "Night and Day." There was a strong rumor Wallis might go to Paramount, but when I asked him, he said he had made no deal with Paramount, with David Selznick or with anyone else. Four studios, I understand, made him offers and there is still the possibility he may form his own company.

* * *

THAT FIERY DYNAMO from our "Hollywood Hotel" broadcasts, Bill Bacher, will be the producer on a movie I'm very interested in, "The Gay Illiterate." I know Bill will do a great job—or tear the roof off 20th Century-Fox in the effort. He's that kind of a guy, and I'm glad he is enthused about my story. Another thing to make me happy is that Eleanor Griffin, an Academy Award winner and an excellent writer, will do the screen play. I've been asked who I would like to play the lead. I ain't talking.

* * *

I HAD a long talk with Ruth Chatterton in New York and she said then she might be seeing me in Hollywood. Now Arthur Lyons tells me that Ruth arrives the last of the month and there is a very strong rumor that she will make a picture on the Warner lot. If she returns to the studio where she queened it for several years, there will be an interesting reunion. Many changes have taken place since she left and, of course, if there was any feeling it's probably all gone now, for time heals any hurt, supposed or real. Arthur Lyons is in Cedars of Lebanon for a checkup and a rest.

* * *

SNAPSHOTS OF HOLLYWOOD COLLECTED AT RANDOM: There's a whisper about town that Rita Hayworth has made a date with the long-legged bird; Ileyne Sugarman, daughter of "Sugie" of the Beverly Tropics, and Jason Bernie, son of the late Ben Bernie, have set May 7 as their wedding day; Joan Blondell has been in conference with Judge Roth and it is believed an announcement of her plans to divorce Dick Powell will shortly be made public. Her sister, Gloria, is in Cedars of Lebanon, where she underwent an emergency operation; Betty Grable is now down to 122 and has never looked better; Skinnay Ennis had to have a dozen stitches taken in his head following an auto accident; Fanny Brice's friends, who have heard that she is in the hospital, have been trying to reach her, but my information is that she is entered under another name; Anne Baxter is entertaining her famous grandfather, Frank Lloyd Wright; the Darryl Zanucks have gone to Palm Springs for the Easter holidays.

Broadway . . . . By Dorothy Kilgallen

Copyright, 1944, King Features Syn. Inc.

NEW YORK, April 7—The old-timers around Broadway have their own ideas about stardust, and, to most of them, the older it is the brighter.

Newer atoms haven't a chance when matched against Pavlowa, George M. Cohan, John Drew—yes, even Man o' War; they jaw of them in tones of awe and pooh-pooh the candidates from our generation. Why, just the other afternoon in the gab corner at Toots Shor's, Arthur Hopkins, the dean himself, averred that Sir Henry Irving and Edwin Booth were in a class that no other actor since that time could even approach.

Could be, could be! But if the younger set tried, it could blow some very fine stardust right in the faces of the scoffing elders—right out of a newer memory book.

* * *

STARDUST was sprinkled all over Hedy Lamarr that night we saw her first in the preview of "Algiers." She just walked toward the camera slowly, and one look at her beautiful face—it was a special kind of beauty that had nothing to do with blond curls and false eyelashes—told the story. She couldn't help being a star . . . A Ray Bolger, who had come up the hard way, the right way, was covered with the magic stuff when he danced a ballet called "Slaughter on Tenth Avenue" in a show called "On Your Toes." Name old songs from "A Bird in a Gilded Cage" to "The Shade of the Old Apple Tree." Do they stack up well against Hoagy Carmichael's "Stardust"? . . . Helen Morgan singing her heart out on a piano top with a torch in her voice that no bustled songbird of the 90's could even attempt—that was stardust de luxe! . . . For performances, walk "The Last Mile" with Spencer Tracy, that one-man dust-maker . . . And what ta-ra-de-boom-de-ay gal ever stopped a show in the fashion of Gertie Lawrence with her grinding, bumping version of "Jenny" in "Lady in the Dark"?

POP ANSON sounds rough and tough, but the dust around him couldn't have been more starry than the stuff around Joe DiMaggio up at the Stadium . . . And who in the bygone days could do more with an old chestnut than Bob Hope, the G. I.'s delight? . . . Crosby, Sinatra and Como—without straw hats, canes or snappy sayings—have stardust and moondust, too, if you listen to the lasses.

Star Shine By Sidney Skolsky

HOLLYWOOD, April 7—It has been a long while since the movies did a straight revue. I believe it hasn't been done since the days of the early talkies and the picture, "The Hollywood Revue." But now Metro is getting ready to make the "Ziegfeld Follies," which will present all the big name players at the studio, and they will be presented as "acts," and there will not be even the pretense of a story.

Lucille Ball

Every name at Metro will be in the "Ziegfeld Follies," and that includes Leo the Lion. In fact, it will be Leo the Lion who will open the picture by stepping out of the trademark frame, saying, "I have seen many good pictures—and some bad ones—but this is one picture that I insist upon being in."

Leo the Lion will then talk about Ziegfeld, his tradition, and act as master of ceremonies for the beginning of the picture, which will present former Ziegfeld stars and numbers. The former Ziegfeld stars section will be done with puppets who resemble the various players.

The master of ceremonies will be Fred Astaire, and there will be such "acts" as Mickey Rooney and Judy Garland doing "Will You Love Me in Technicolor as You Did in Black and White?" Greer Garson doing a stint, and the Ziegfeld motto, "Glorifying the American Girl," will be modernized with such players as Ann Sothern and Lucille Ball playing a WAC and WAVE, for that is how the American girl is glorified these days.

* * *

BUDDY De SYLVA was sitting in Lucy's the other night and talking about his other favorite restaurant, Dinty Moore's, and what a great character the old man Dinty is.

If Dinty didn't like you, or you did something he didn't like, it didn't matter who you were and how big a spender you were, Dinty Moore told you to get out of his restaurant, that he didn't want the likes of you around.

One night Dinty Moore and Lou Holtz, one of the regulars, got into an argument. Holtz knew what was going to happen, so he beat Dinty to it. Holtz stood up, denounced Dinty Moore, and said: "I'm not going to eat here any more. I'll never set foot in this restaurant again," and walked out. Three days later, Lou Holtz walked down 46th st. toward Moore's. He was entering the restaurant when Buddy stopped him and said: "I thought you had a fight with Dinty and was never going to eat here again." Holtz answered: "That old meanie ain't going to make me ruin my stomach," and walked into the restaurant.

SO DISTANT AN EVENT as the Wisconsin primary is being interpreted locally as being the deciding factor in placing Assistant Dist. Atty. Edward M. Sullivan of Suffolk County in the race for Congress against Congressman John W. McCormack . . . For the word now comes, authoritatively but not officially, that Sullivan has made up his mind to run . . . He will resign his assistant district attorneyship, friends say, to make the fight.

* * *

THE SMASHING renunciation by Wisconsin Republicans of everything that Wendell Willkie stood for will be paralleled by a huge anti-"one world" vote on the part of the Democrats, political sharps foresee . . . Congressman McCormack, as Roosevelt's voice or "echo" in the House of Representatives, is tarred with the "internationalism" dauber, according to the "thinking" of the local political sideliners . . . McCormack and Sullivan fought it out once before, over the same territory.

* * *

GEORGE MARION, JR., librettist of "Allah Be Praised" thus far hasn't budged from his stand that the management of that show cannot call in a collaborator . . . The Marion contract gives him that protection . . . Most recognized book-writers and musical comedy tunesmiths insist on that protective clause, particularly in these days when the availability of gobs of money qualifies so many newcomers as musical show producers . . . Al Bloomingdale, producer of "Allah Be Praised," is using some of his own money in that production . . . But "o. p. m." (other people's money) finance many of the lavish musicals of boom times.

* *

ONE OF THE REGULAR "ringsiders" of the Boston nightclubs was explaining away a $52 check his party of three was handed last night . . . Like most of the experienced drinkers who are making a night of it, this chap and his two friends were ordering by the bottle—of scotch . . . The tab for two bottles of a good brand came to $32, at the rate of $16 per bottle . . . The various taxes, 30 per cent, 5 per cent and 2 per cent, boosted the tab to $43.84 . . . The party had olives and celery and soda water, and the charges on these items, plus tax, made the check $47 . . . The waiter was given a five-dollar tip.

* * *

"GOING MY WAY," the picture in which Paramount is starring Bing Crosby, has been in local projection rooms quite frequently, apparently . . . Four citizens so far have rebuked this column for concentrating its praise on Bing Crosby, while Barry Fitzgerald, in the other important male role, was not being mentioned . . . As the picture will not be released until the fall (according to Paramount's present plans) we were not discussing it as a whole . . . Fitzgerald can be depended on generally for an excellent performance, and in "Going My Way" he contributes what is probably due to be hailed as his classic performance in pictures.

* * *

BUT THE BING, as an actor of depth, is a distinct novelty . . . One unusual feature of the spontaneous cheer set up for Actor Fitzgerald comes in the form of a letter from Ben Wolf . . . Mr. Wolf does not work for Paramount . . . He is a representative of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer . . . He writes:

"About your article concerning the preformance of Bing Crosby in 'Going My Way.' . . . While this is not one of our pictures (no sorry), it is part of our business, nevertheless, to see it—as we see most pictures of other distributors . . . I agree with you that Bing Crosby did an excellent job, but without desiring to start a controversy, don't you think that Barry Fitzgerald, who played the part of the older priest, should have deserved at least honorable mention? . . . All in all, it is a fine production and one that is worth-while seeing!"

Shades of the late Louis Selznick, whom rival companies drove to the wall because of jealousy! . . . What a nice friendly rivalry seems to be existing now . . . An M-G-M executive going all-out in praise for a Paramount picture!

IF TODAY IS YOUR BIRTHDAY—You were born under Aries, Head Sign of the Zodiac; your symbol, the Ram. You can, like your symbol, force yourself to success through difficult conditions, but partly because of this you'll not find difficulties so trying. When we expect hardships, we can cope with them philosophically. Among your many talents is keenness, ability to act quickly upon decisions, practicality, artistry, and, when rightly trained, brilliant head work. Reflection upon this Good Friday. Listing of Jobs For Vets Planned

WASHINGTON, April 7 (AP)—Manpower Chairman McNutt announced today the U. S. Employment Service would prepare for discharged servicemen a summary of job opportunities in all industrial centers with population over 100,000, and the principal city of each state regardless of size.

The summary, entitled labor market information for veterans, will be revised every two months, and will indicate the expected labor demand for six months in advance. It will be available at all offices of the employment service.

SOMETHING SPECIAL
EASTER MORNING COFFEE CAKE!

Delicious for "special occasion" breakfasts! But be sure to bake this cake with reliable, cream of tartar ROYAL! For its even, "steady action" helps protect your baking. Helps give light, tender quick breads—high, fine-textured, fresh-keeping cakes. In home baking, safeguard scarce rationed ingredients. Always use ROYAL cream of tartar BAKING POWDER.

1½ cups sifted all-purpose flour
1 cup sugar ¼ cup shortening
1 tablespoon melted fortified margarine
1 teaspoon cinnamon
2 teaspoons Royal Cream of Tartar Baking Powder
½ teaspoon salt ½ cup milk
1 egg, well beaten

Sift together flour and sugar; add shortening and mix in thoroughly with fork. Measure ¾ cup of this mixture; add melted margarine and cinnamon and mix well. Reserve to put on top of coffee cake. To remaining flour mixture, add baking powder, salt, milk and well-beaten egg; beat well. Pour into greased 8-inch square pan; sprinkle with cinnamon mixture. Bake in moderate oven at 375° F. about 40 minutes. To serve, cut in 9 squares. Easy and delicious!

Ex-Reporter Wins Air Honors

Less than 11 months after he was commissioned an Army Air Forces second lieutenant, Thomas J. Berube, former Boston American police reporter, has been promoted to first lieutenant and decorated three times for bravery in action over Italian battlefields.

News of his exploits and promotion was contained in a V-Mail letter received from Berube today by his friends in the American city room.

Berube prefaced his announcement with the modest comment: "Not much news at this end," and then proceeded to disclose he had been on 26 missions, received the Army Air Medal and two Oak Leaf Clusters and was promoted. Each cluster is equivalent to an additional Air Medal.

Q—I was inducted into the Army Jan. 30, 1943, under the V. O. C. program and received my discharge June 5, 1943, at Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo., at my own request. Am I entitled to any mustering-out pay? G. B., Somerville.

A—Yes, you are entitled to mustering-out pay.

Q—I have been recently discharged from the U. S. Marine Corps. Would appreciate advice as to where I may receive discharge pin? R. R., Melrose.

A—Buttons are issued at Marine Recruiting Office, 7th floor, Post Office Building, Federal st., Boston.

Q—A former member of the U. S. Navy Reserve, honorably discharged, would like information as to where he may apply for discharge pin? G. L., Quincy.

A—Take your discharge papers to Fargo Barracks, Summer st., South Boston. You will receive pin from commanding officer.

Q—I was inducted with the National Guard, Jan. 16, 1941, and was discharged on March 6, 1942, by reason of minority discharge, under honorable conditions. Am I entitled to mustering-out pay? J. E. T., Roxbury.

A—Yes. War Dept. has provided mustering-out pay for those discharged because of "minority" status.

Q—Could you tell me what is the nature of a discharge under W. D. Circular No. 92, 1943? J. R. D., Newburyport.

A—Discharge was issued to allow enlisted man to enter defense work and be placed in Reserve Corps. You are not entitled to mustering-out pay, however.

Q—I enlisted in the armed forces Nov. 24, 1942, and was given an honorable discharge because of physical defects, C. D. D. (Certified Disability Discharge) on Jan. 16, 1943. Am I entitled to the $100 in this case? R. S., Waltham.

A—You may apply for the $100 mustering-out pay due you.

(All questions submitted to the Veterans' Friend, Record-American, 5 Winthrop Square, Boston, will be answered in this column unless personal answer required. In such case enclose a self-addressed envelope.)

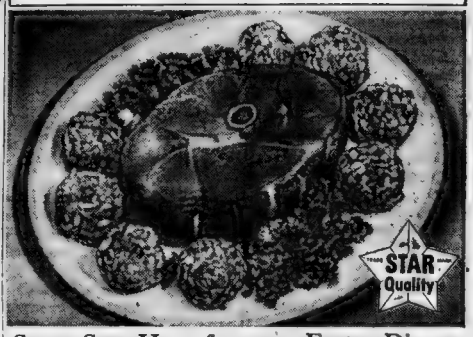
Armour Ideas Make the Most of Meat



Serve Star Ham for your Easter Dinner

Even with rationing, you can enjoy America's most delicious Ham for a real American meal! Here's how:

To serve four, ask your meat man for a 1½ inch slice of Armour's Star Ham—the tenderest, finest flavored ham ever! Sugar-cured . . . mellowed over fragrant hickory and hardwood fires . . . wonderfully delicious! Score the fat edge of the ham so it will lie flat and place in casserole. Cover and bake 30 minutes in 325° F. oven. Uncover; add ¼ cup brown sugar and continue baking uncovered another 40 to 45 minutes or until tender. Serve with peanut covered sweet potato balls, made as follows:

Mash 1½ cups cooked sweet potatoes. Blend with ¼ tsp. salt, pepper to taste, and shape into round balls. One and one-half cups should make 8 balls. Chop enough salted peanuts to make ½ to ¾ cup. Roll sweet potato balls in chopped peanuts and bake in 325° F. oven for 20 to 30 minutes. The flavor is new and intriguing . . . and the food is especially nutritious.

Save this recipe from the Armour Kitchens and follow it for your Easter Dinner!

Russia Now Asserts Rights As Great Far East Power

Special to Boston Evening American

NEW DELHI, April 6—Buoyed by its successes on the European military and political fronts, Russia has definitely discarded its recent policy of caution in the Pacific for a forthright plan of action which will enable it to take full advantage of its status as a great Far East power.

This was the viewpoint of veteran Asiatic observers today as they studied the full report of Moscow's blunt warning to China that a reported bombing affray on the border of Outer Mongolia must not be repeated.

According to the Russian charges, Chinese troops from Sinkiang Province late last year violated the Mongolian border, attacking Kazakh refugees seeking to escape from this part of China.

Sinkiang authorities, it was charged, had attempted forcible transplantation of the Kazakhs to southern areas of the province. Families objecting to this move crossed into Outer Mongolia, where they were "hospitably received," Russia alleged, but some of them in their flight were bombed and machine-gunned by Chinese units.

Premier Stalin's statement that the Red army stands ready to aid outlying provinces defend their frontiers, if necessary, was interpreted as an indication Russia now is asserting its rights as a great Far East power.

As a result, observers say the necessity for a clear Anglo-American Pacific policy has become apparent, for should such a policy not be adopted "the European political debacle caused by a lack of definite policy will be repeated in the Pacific."

Russia's stand in relation to China and its signing of the Sakhalin oil-fisheries agreement with Japan on terms highly favorable to Moscow were seen as preludes to the emergence of a positive Far East policy by Russia.

The yielding of key rights by Japan in the Sakhalin treaty was viewed as a measure required by the war and an indication of Tokyo's need to appease the Soviets.

Loveliness Plus Is Jinx

Beauty

THRILL TO THE WARMTH OF SPRING with a pink ice rouge blush to your cheeks . . . imparting to your complexion the bloom of youth . . . and sparkle and gaiety of a happy and cheerful mood . . . in harmonious extension of your blithe mood for the new season . . . and to look as lovely and pretty as gorgeous Columbia Starlet Jinx Falkenburg.

Thrilling New Pink Ice Rouge Ideal for Spring

By RUTH MUGGLEBEE

REMEMBER THAT GLORIOUS SUNSET . . . how it left you feeling at peace with the world? Or how you relaxed with pleasurable comfort and enjoyed that movie in technicolor? . . . Color plays an important part in our lives . . . and, now in the new fashions . . . it is a dominant, vibrant note. For color sets a mood . . . be it gay, effervescent, lighthearted . . . or calm, peaceful and subdued.

Fashion

And, it is any of these effects that we try to achieve through subtle makeup . . . a mood to fit our personality of the moment . . . or to create one for a special occasion. Take for instance, the significance of rouge. A touch of color on your cheeks imparts a natural flush to your complexion . . . spotlights the brilliance of your eyes . . . adds the finishing touch to your appearance . . . creates an aura of gaiety and sparkle . . . of youthfulness and vivacity.

RICH FUCHSIA TONE

There is a pink ice rouge . . . its name alone thrills me . . . makes me think of crisp freshness . . . of summer's cooling breeze ushered in over the ocean's wave . . . of sparkling laughter and gay chitchat . . . Doesn't it inspire you similarly? And this pink ice rouge is so effective in transferring to your cheeks the gay and giddy thoughts that rush through your mind . . . it is delightful.

Its color is wondrous to behold . . . and its warm, rich, fuchsia tone is unbelievably flattering to almost every coloring . . . blonde, brunette or redhead . . . and also, particularly lovely with grey hair.

It is an attractive beauty accessory created by an accomplished cosmetic colorist . . . an exclusive house that caters to fastidious and discriminating women. Packaged in a new, ivory, plastic case . . . 'tis round, of feather weight and compactly moulded in the traditional simplicity and elegance synonymous with this firm. You will find it a handsome addition to your dressing table.

For the name of this thrilling new pink ice rouge, phone the Beauty Dept., LIBerty 4000, except the week-end, or write me, care of the Boston Evening American, inclosing a stamped . . . addressed envelope.

THE PERFECT EASTER SUIT is this dressmaker suit of spring blue Forstmann wool designed by Hattie Carnegie. The blouse is pink and blue patterned silk . . . and the pinched-in cardigan jacket is lined with a matching print. Overset shoulder panels and applique . . . resembling false pockets made of the same wool . . . give design to the model . . . while the skirt is this year's version of last year's famous trouser skirt . . . still a little narrower—R. Baked Ham for Your Easter Dinner

By MARTHA LEE

A WHOLE BAKED HAM, attractively decorated and garnished, is the standby of the homemaker who wants to make dinner an occasion. That is one reason why ham has become a tradition in many homes for Easter dinner. With ham an economical point value, many families will be able to carry on the custom this year.

EASTER DINNER

Baked Ham with Easter Eggs
Parsley Potatoes Cauliflower
Stuffed Prune Salad
Baking Powder Biscuits
Marmalade
Peanut Brittle Mousse Coffee

Place ham fat side up on a rack in an open roasting pan. Make an incision and insert meat thermometer so that the center of the bulb reaches the center of the largest muscle. Be sure that the bulb does not rest on either fat or bone. Do not cover and do not add water. Place in a slow oven (300 deg. F.) and bake until done. Smoked ham is done when the meat thermometer registers 170 deg. F. Allow about 25 minutes per pound for baking a whole ham and about 30 minutes per pound for a half ham.

About 45 minutes before ham is done, remove from the oven and cut rind from end to end with a scissors and peel off. Return ham to oven and brown. Decorate with sliced cherries. For Easter, garnish platter with hard-cooked, tinted Easter eggs (out of shell). Food coloring may be used to tint the eggs. Serve half an egg with each slice of ham.

For a family reunion, ham is a delicious, easy and practical choice. Even in homes where a family reunion is not planned, an Easter ham may be practical and possible. The leftover portions of ham can be used in many interesting ways that extend the meat. These are just a few of the possibilities:

HAM IN RAISIN SAUCE

Cook ½ cup of raisins in 1 cup water. Add ½ cup brown sugar, 4 tablespoons vinegar, juice of 1 lemon, and a dash of ginger. Thicken liquid with 2 teaspoons of cornstarch smoothed with cold water. Heat slices of ham in sauce and serve.

HAM CROQUETTES

Combine ground cooked ham with a very thick white sauce. Form into rolls. Chill. Roll in crumbs and brown in drippings.

HAM LOAF

Combine ground ham with soft bread crumbs, beaten egg and milk. Season with pepper, onion and chopped parsley. Bake in a moderate oven 1 hour.

HAM SALAD

Combine diced ham, shredded lettuce, diced sweet pickles, celery and sweet red peppers, mayonnaise and prepared mustard. Chill. Serve on crisp lettuce.

BAKED SMOKED HAM

STUFFED PRUNE SALAD

Use steamed prunes or pitted large dates; stuff with cream cheese or a spicy soft cheese moistened with mayonnaise and seasoned with salt and paprika. Serve 3 to a salad on a bed of crisp lettuce, romaine, escarole or watercress.

SCALLOPED HAM AND POTATOES

5 cups thinly sliced pared potatoes
3 cups cooked ham strips, about 1½ x ½ in.
1 cup thinly sliced peeled onion
3 cups thin white sauce

Arrange the potatoes, ham and onion in alternate layers in a 2-quart covered casserole. Pour the white sauce over all; cover and bake in a moderately hot oven of 400 deg. F. for 1 hour. Remove the cover and bake about 30 minutes longer, or until the potatoes are tender. Makes 6 servings.

HAM AND STRING BEAN SAVORY

Hot corn bread
2/3 cup milk
½ lb. processed American cheese
1½ cups thinly sliced or slivered cooked ham
1½ cups cooked or canned string beans
½ tsp. Worcestershire sauce

Make and bake corn bread. Meanwhile melt cheese in top of double boiler. Add milk, and stir until smooth and well blended. Add ham, string beans, and Worcestershire sauce, and heat thoroughly. Serve over squares of the hot corn bread. Makes 4 generous servings.

Most Spring Evening Gowns Long, Colorful

By BETTINA BEDWELL

THERE are more long evening dresses this Spring, and they are more colorful than those worn the past Winter. Very beautiful models for evening come in two clear, sparkling colors, like the Villa Zigmund dress sketched.

This dress is really a museum piece; it is so beautiful with its intricate and marvelous embroidery that almost covers the fuchsia red crepe waist with its long sleeves and high neckline. The embroidery is done in an incredible combination of beads and silk, and is in clear powder blue, which is also the shade of the long, slim skirt.

The very slender line of the skirt is softened by a sash of the powder blue, with flashes of the fuchsia red on it. Sash falls to a fingertip length at the left side.

The Correct Thing

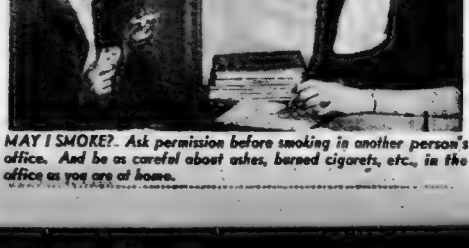
Clothes Missing

DEAR MISS FAIRFAX:

When my son was inducted into the Navy and was issued his uniforms, he shipped his civilian clothes back home, but to date they have not been received. It has been four months since he left. Where can I inquire about these lost clothes? S. M.

It is a sailor's own responsibility to ship his civilian clothes back home as soon as his uniforms have been issued at "boot" camp. In order to facilitate this, a recruit is advised to bring only one suit with him when he reports for duty. If these clothes have not been received by this time, I suggest you write your son to have them traced from his end of the route.



MAY I SMOKE?. Ask permission before smoking in another person's office. And be as careful about ashes, burned cigarets, etc., in the office as you are at home.

Cox and Fuller See Airborne Soldiers

CAMP MACKALL, N. C., April 7 (AP)—Two governors, R. E. Baldwin of Connecticut and J. M. Broughton of North Carolina, and three former governors, R. E. Spaulding of New Hampshire and Channing T. Cox and A. T. Fuller of Massachusetts, toured this airborne division base as guests of post officials.

They viewed phases of training airborne soldiers undergo

Don't Miss This Way to Save Fats for Extra Points!

1. SAVE MEAT TRIMMINGS, TABLE SCRAPS. Whoa, lady—don't throw out solid fat you trim off meat before cooking. Or those little bits of fat left on the dinner plates. Instead, put them all in a small bowl. Remember, only a tablespoonful of fat is needed to compound enough vaccine to protect 73 men,

2. KEEP 'EM IN THE ICEBOX and add leftover fat scraps after every meal. They mount up surprisingly—and so do the free meat points you get for turning in fats. (You're saving liquid fats, too, aren't you . . . no matter how dark they are. Keep a container handy on the back of the stove.)

3. MELT 'EM IN THE OVEN. Once a week, when your oven's going, melt your solid fats down. Then strain into the can with your other fats. Remember, any kind of a tin can will do. When the can is full, rush it to your butcher for your 2 free meat points and 4¢ a pound. Start today, won't you?

'The Sullivans' Stirring Story of American Family

By HARRIS MORGAN

"The Sullivans," not a war picture, but a genuinely touching story of the one-for-all-and-all-for-one clannishness behind the heart-stopping news flash that lifted an obscure Irish-American family into the nation's headlines—and now on to the screen—is finding a warm response from Paramount and Fenway audiences.

Twentieth Century-Fox is to be congratulated for resisting the Hollywood temptation to oversentimentalize it. It is restrained, realistic and in excellent taste, and there are plenty of laughs over and with the young Sullivans to balance the inevitable sadness of this true story's ending.

Told in flashback, the picture's introduction has to do with the launching of the Navy's battleship, the U.S.S. Sullivans, the nation's tribute to the five Iowa brothers who went down together on the cruiser Juneau, sunk in the South Pacific. Then the action goes back to Waterloo, Iowa, and the homespun, boisterous boyhood of the young Sullivans.

Thomas Mitchell and Selena Royle play the Sullivan parents with naturalness and warmth. The Sullivan household is continually in a state of turmoil, but the Sullivans' fierce loyalty and their love of life and laughter keep trouble on the run.

Lloyd Bacon's direction stresses the humorous angles throughout and points up the closeness of the brothers. It was their unswerving determination not to be separated that won them a dispensation from the Navy, permitting all five to serve on the same ship.

They have enlisted just after the Pearl Harbor attack, see their parents and their sister and the youngest boy's wife, Anne Baxter, and baby for the last time before they ship off for the Solomons.

Mitchell, with a beguiling brogue and his unfailing acting skill, is splendid as "Pa" Sullivan, and Selena Royle, loving and forbearing, is excellent, too. The actors who play the grown-up Sullivans . . . Bobby Driscoll, Buddy Swan, Billy Cummings, Marvin Davis and Johnny Calkins, all unknowns . . . are likable and unaffected.

FUN APLENTY IN MET FILM

By PEGGY DOYLE

You've heard that tune about the housing shortage in our nation's capital, but until Paulette Goddard sings her way into your hearts, boys, and Fred MacMurray nudges your funny-bone in "Standing Room Only," you ain't heard nothin' yet.

They currently bounce through one crazy episode after another on the Metropolitan screen.

Miss Goddard, employed in the donkey department of Edward Arnold's toy factory, is so entranced with executive MacMurray's appearance that she botches up her donkey-building chores.

Because her technique will entertain you, your reporter will skip the details to take you to Washington, D. C., where Paulette, and not MacMurray's regular secretary, is reversing the charges by giving her boss, Mr. MacMurray, dictation.

She has cancelled their hotel reservations and both sleep that night under a monument of a large but not shelter-proof horse.

PAULETTE GODDARD
"Standing Room Only"

Paulette has a pair of housemaid's knees . . . but so pretty . . . and Fred, in a butler's monkey-suit, has discovered how the other half does three-quarters of the work.

Director Sidney Lanfield has done a sweet job of directing, keeping comedy dancing along and never missing an amusing angle in a plot that is as slim as the devastating Miss Goddard.

Paulette, once a so-so glamour-girl, is one of the screen's best light comediennes and giving Claudette Colbert plenty to worry about. And Fred MacMurray, I'd never believe he could give such a slick, easy performance a picture or so back.

Arnold, as MacMurray's boss-turned-stoodging-butler, and Roland Young, who keeps the home fires burning while his better-half, the Major, carries on her canteen maneuvers, turn in grand comedy performances.

IT'S ANDREWS WEEK AGAIN

By DON WARD

The famous Andrews Sisters are back on the RKO-Boston stage, where they made their first smash success.

And needless to report they are drawing cheers from the youthful customers who are still going crazy over "Boogie-Weogie Bugie Boy," "Shoo-Shoo Baby" and "Pistol-Packin' Mama"—or anything else the celebrated close-harmonists sing.

Yes, and the girls are still drawing big royalties from "Bei Mir Bist de Schoen," which they made famous.

Mitch Ayres and his "Fashions in Music" let go with the band-show this week. Besides the smart glee club and the solo singers, Dick Dyer and Ruth McCullough, there is also the amazing trumpeter—or should we say trumpetress?—Estelle Slavin, who will take over the band when Mitch goes into the Army, probably next week.

Shea and Raymond, other headliners on the RKO bill, give out with high comedy and dancing strictly for laughs.

"Moonlight in Vermont," the new film, features Gloria Jean and Ray Malone, and is all about a country girl who goes operatic in New York, then returns home to save the crops.

All in all, a bright and entertaining show at the K-B.

Music Highlight at Loew's

The only thing significant about "Song of Russia," the new picture at Loew's State and Orpheum Theaters, is the Stalin story its release spawned.

Stalin is reported to have pondered giving up the war to take arms against Gregory Ratoff for his "Song of Russia" interpretation of the Russian people.

Remember, way back in those distant days of innocence abroad in the land, when the Russians were thought of as impractical, irresponsible, precocious children? That is the slant in this glamourized boy-meets-girl interlude in a story that has little reality or reason.

The character he is called upon to play is as unfair to Robert Taylor as those others in his salad days he had lived down.

Joseph Pasternak has given "Song of Russia" a fine production, but the script throws it and the cast down completely. Noteworthy, too, is the music, Tschaikowsky's, and some by unbilled "modern Russian composers."

"And Russia Is Her Name," by Jerome Kern, and E. Y. Harburg, also scores, as does newcomer Susan Peters, whose frail charm as a young Soviet pianist contributes the only mention-worthy performance.

On the other half of the bill "The Memphis Belle," vividly documented in technicolor record of an actual bombing flight over Germany, takes your breath away with its closeup of what our fliers are up against in the European theater of war.

Photographed by the U. S. Eighth Air Force photographers and combat crew members, "The Femphis Belle" is dedicated to the men of the Eighth Air Force. P. D.

WAVE Is Engaged

By BETTY ALDEN

ALL OUT for the Navy, post deb Martha Webster, USNWR, is not only wearing Uncle Sam's navy blue herself but is soon to become a Navy bride.

Her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Webster of Hamilton, announce Martha's engagement to Ensign Edwin Rogers Sparrow, Jr., USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin R. Sparrow of Belmont.

The bride-to-be enlisted in the WAVES last July and is a specialist 3/c attached to recruiting. She made her debut in '42-'43 after studying at Erskine and West Hill Schools.

Ensign Sparrow graduated from Brown and Nichols and Tufts College where he was a member of Naval ROTC and received his commission last February. At college he was elected captain of the '44 track team and belonged to Alpha Tau Omega.

A FEW WARM blooded gals like Mrs. M. Bernard Fox and Mrs. Dunbar Lockwood were pleasingly conspicuous in their gay spring suits among all the winter minks and caraculs at the Easter Symphony.

Lucy Fox's suit was a gorgeous Mexican rose shade of gabardine worn with a fetching navy half hat trimmed with white flowers. Mrs. Lockwood's violet sheer wool was enhanced by a tiny flower bonnet. Bo Eddy and Lee Withington also came in suits without the protection of topcoats and, though she wore a fur jacket, Nancy Eliot looked very Easter-ish in a fuchsia dress and lime green veiling draped over her brunette page boy and forming streamers down the back. Friends were greeting Polly

FROM THE LAND of orange blossoms comes news of the engagement of Marjorie A. Boucher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Boucher of Coral Gables, Fla., and Nassau, to Gustavus John Esselen 3d, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gustavus J. Esselen of Swampscott and East Wolfeboro, N. H.

The bride-to-be graduated from Queens College, Nassau. Her fiance graduated from Phillips Exeter in 1940, attended Harvard, and is attached to the Air Transport Command at Miami. The wedding is planned for June.

NEW YEAST TABLET EASY WAY TO HELP

Fight Shortages of B Vitamins in War Meals!

Feel "all-in," edgy, because you need more B vitamins? Try new food aid, today!

IF troubles like feeling tired, edgy, bother you, you'd better look to your vitamins! For, though these conditions may be due to many causes, one cause is a mild B vitamin deficiency. And nutritionists warn wartime meals may be thin on these vital "Spark Plug" vitamins!

How can you easily get more? Scientists define the B Vitamin Complex as "those water-soluble vitamins as found in yeast." And now, Fleischmann's, the greatest name in yeast, brings you "Fleischmann's B Vitamins Yeast Tablets."*

Get them at your grocer's today! They're easy to take! Thrifty! Vitamin potency guaranteed, or money back! And, if you are one of millions whom mild B vitamin deficiency has plagued, see if you don't soon begin to feel almost "brand-new," with loads of restored energy and vitality!

*Four tablets daily supply the adult daily minimum requirement of Vitamin B1, and 17% that of riboflavin, plus 2.5 mgs. of niacin

"KEEPING UP TO PAR IS VITAL TO MY WORK!" says charming, attractive Lillian M. Blackburn, Stewardess on American Airlines Flagship flights. "So I make sure I don't allow a lack of B vitamins to let me get tired and irritable. That's where Fleischmann's B Vitamins Yeast Tablets have been such a wonderful help to me."

Stettinius in London

LONDON, April 7 (INS)—Edward R. Stettinius, Jr., American Undersecretary of State, arrived in London today. He smilingly declined to discuss the purpose of his visit. However, he was willing to admit he would meet Foreign Secretary Eden and other members of Churchill's cabinet.

Shops, Shoppers Aid Paper Drive

By restricting use of paper, reusing cartons and salvaging all waste paper, Boston stores are making a valuable contribution in the paper drive, and shoppers are co-operating cheerfully in the conservation program, according to Daniel Bloomfield, manager of the Boston Retail Trade Board.

"There has been a great increase in the number of shoppers who bring their own shopping bags with them," Bloomfield said. "They appear cheerful and willing to carry their own parcels, thus saving wrapping paper."

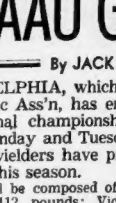
Philadelphia Enters 8 In AAU Garden Bouts

By JACK CONWAY

PHILADELPHIA, which will carry the banner of the Middle Atlantic Ass'n, has entered a team of eight boxers for the national championships that will be held at the Garden on Monday and Tuesday nights of next week. The visiting mitt wielders have proved their class in important tournaments this season.

The team will be composed of John Carroll, 112 pounds; Vic Capacino, 118; Chuck Lloyd, 126; Frank Panamore, 135; Phil Carrozza, 147; Pancho Namee, 160; Thomas Ruth, 175; heavyweight to be named today from three possible choices.



Frank Sweeney

Oklahoma has also notified Tam Sheehan it will have eight boxers in Boston for the title bouts. The arrival of the entries from Philadelphia and Oklahoma increased the number of entries to 77. With Chicago, New York and the Southeastern Ass'n to be heard from, it is expected that the entry list will soar close to the 100 mark.

There is considerable interest being shown in the appearance of Frank Sweeney who will represent Washington in the middleweight class. He is considered one of the best amateur boxers in the East.

Charley Gevecker, national committeeman, has sent eight entries for the Ozark Ass'n which embraces St. Louis. The Ozark team is confident it will win at least one title. The Ozark team will arrive here Sunday morning from St. Louis. It will be made up of Alvin Freeman, 112 pounds; Nick Saunders, 118; Philip Alberte, 126; Curtis Smith, 135; Robert Mohler, 147; Curtis Filer and Alonzo Karr, 160, and Joe Sheppard, 135.

16-Year-Old Star

MAJOR JONES, 16-year-old Kansas City high school boy, is the new sensation of amateur boxing. He won the Chicago Golden Glove championship at 126 pounds, and then also came through a winner when the Chicago Golden Glove ring kings battled the New York Golden Glove champions. In addition, Jones took first honors in the 126-pound division in the Kansas City Star and Missouri Valley A. A. U. boxing tournaments.

Jones is a fast, flashy boxer, and a natural hitter. He will be a favorite to win in the 126-pound class. With careful handling this youngster should go on to become one of the greatest of amateur ring kings. Later on he should distinguish himself in the professional ring.

Armstrong for Army

HAMMERING Henry Armstrong has been obliged to cancel boxing bouts that would have netted him $100,000 as a result of being called by the Army. The former triple world's champion has passed his physical examination, and he will be inducted into the Army in 21 days.

When Armstrong received his Army call, George Moore, his manager, was considering an offer from Rip Valenti of the Goodwin A. C. calling for a $20,000 guarantee and a 30 per cent privilege for a Boston bout with Beau Jack. The latter was to get the same terms.

It was planned to offer the bout an $8.40 top, and it would have drawn $100,000.

Armstrong has drawn large crowds during his current comeback. Once in the Army it is unlikely that Hammering Henry will be permitted to box, as a result of the precedent set in the case of Joe Louis.

★ ★ ★

Random Shots at Target

IT IS EXPECTED that interest in Boston's two pro boxing shows next week will pick up after the amateurs are finished on Tuesday night. The Callahan A. C. has Joey Sullick boxing Sam Daniels at Mechanics Building on Thursday night, while the Goodwin Club is offering Izzy Jannazzo against Larry Anzalone at the Garden on Friday night.

Sox Fear '43 Jinx Repeat In Dodgers Clash Today

By JOE CASHMAN

NEW YORK, April 7—The Red Sox go over the bridge to Brooklyn this Good Friday afternoon to meet the Dodgers in the opener of a three-game exhibition series.

Both clubs hope that none of these tilts turns out to be as costly to them as a game they played in Flatbush last spring.

It was on the second Saturday before the '43 season started.

The temperature, in the morning, was down around the 35 mark. None of the Sox dreamed a game would be played, but a phone call to the Brooklyn office revealed that the Flock planned to go through with the title as scheduled.

Consequently there was nothing for the Hose to do but start in the direction of the Gowanus Canal. By the time they arrived the mercury had dropped several degrees. Yet the Dodger management still insisted upon the game going on.

"Tex" Hughson started for the Sox. Whit Wyatt opened for the Dodgers.

Each went three innings. And each, intent upon living up to his reputation as the right-handed ace not only of his club but also of his league, cut loose with everything he had in that intense cold.

Wyatt never flashed more stuff. He turned back nine Sox batters in order. They commented afterward that they couldn't understand how any National League club ever prevailed against the assortment Whitlow had shown them.

Hughson was nearly as effective as his adversary. He didn't pitch hitless ball but he did pitch scoreless ball.

But how the weather took its toll of their arms.

Hughson, a 22-game winner in '42, was just another pitcher for the Hose last season. He turned in but 12 victories, if memory doesn't fail us. He had lost that extra zip on his serves.

Wyatt did slightly better, but too late to keep the Dodgers in contention.

Until mid July, this Dodger ace who had turned in 40 triumphs for the club over the two previous seasons, couldn't get anybody out. He had a 2-5 record at that time and the St. Louis Cardinals had the flag all sewed up.

Finally his arm did thaw out and Whit galloped down the stretch to hang up 12 straight decisions. That spurt merely enabled the Dodgers to finish in third place.

Big Field in 10-Mile

By MIKE GILLOOLY

Director Tom Haggerty, leader of the Cathedral Club of the South End, will find all his efforts rewarded tomorrow afternoon when the classiest field of marathoners of the season—and the largest, too—lines up for the 34th renewal of the 10-mile road race at the Union Park st. clubhouse.

An indication of the keen competition will be in the handicaps with five starters slated to leave from scratch in the lengthy list of more than 50 plodders.

Johnnie Kelley and Clayton Farrar will, of course, go to the post as favorites with the Coast Guardsman having a decided edge on the basis of his two previous local performances. Farrar, tuning up for what he hopes will be a clean sweep of the local road races and aiming for the B. A. A. honors April 19, has already mastered the greater part of the field in the 20-mile North Medford and 10-mile Reddish A. A. events.

START AT SCRATCH

Both will be starting at scratch along with Pvt. Ed Cook, Jr., U. S. Marines; Lloyd Evans, Canadian airplane worker, and Lloyd Bairstow, U. S. Coast Guard. There's still the possibility that this quintet will be boosted if Gerard Cote, B. A. A. defending champion, arrives in the Hub in time to compete.

Director Haggerty had expected Ted Vogel, U. S. Navy, to go out for his Cathedral double but he has not yet filed his official entry. Vogel, working under Johnnie Semple, C. P. O., at Sampson, N. Y., wrote Haggerty that he would be home for this run but no further word has been heard from the former schoolboy champion.

The route: Start at Cathedral clubhouse on Union Park st. to Harrison ave. to Dover st. to Albany st. to Malden st. to Harrison ave. to Mass. ave. to Southampton st. to Andrew sq. to Dorchester st. to Telegraph st. to Thomas Park to National st. to Dorchester st. to Broadway to M st. to First st. to Farragut rd. to East Broadway to Strandway to Columbia rd. to Mass. ave. to Harrison ave. to finish in front of clubhouse.

ATLANTIC CITY, April 7 (AP)—The New York Yankees have a game booked with Connie Mack's unbeaten Athletics here today. Hank Borowy and Lefty Johnny Johnson may share the mound duties for the world champions.

Arlington Nine Shaping Up As State Title Contender

Arlington High School will admittedly miss the services of Co-capt. Mel Massucco on its mound staff but still there's an air of confidence around Spy Pond Field as the baseball squad goes through daily practice sessions—an air that spells trouble for the foes of the Ostergren-Gardella crew.

Massucco joined the Merchant Marine last winter leaving the defending champions of the Suburban League with but two veterans to keep up the stellar record of the Arlington nine in that fast circuit.

Still, the kids are sure that they'll have another first class ball team, one worthy of another nomination to the state championship of the Schoolboy Writers Ass'n. In Coaches Freddie Ostergren, supervising this season, and Gus Gardella, active mentor, Arlington has a diamond-wise duet of leaders to uncover and develop hidden talent of the baseball-minded squad.

OPPOSITION TOUGHER

"I don't think we've finished worse than second since we started in the Suburban League about eight years ago," said Coach Ostergren. "We'll get up there again although we have a lot of hard work ahead of us before we come up to last year's starting team. And I fear the opposition is going to be a bit tougher than last season so we'll just have to be a little better."

"The kids will pick up a lot from Gus (Gardella). He's the father of the former Harvard captain and he had a try-out with the Giants. He knows his baseball. He'll be a big help to us," continued Ostergren, who will take things a bit easier for a while until back at full strength after his recent hospitalization.

The two veterans, Dave Sheehan and Co-Capt. Dick Blanchard, will get the team off to a fine start toward "down the middle" strength. Sheehan, with three years' service with the pitchers, will top off a capable mound staff, while Blanchard, a classy shortstop last season, will be battling for All Scholastic rating this spring.

BYRNES LONG HITTER

In the receiving department, Arlington apparently will find its pitchers well handled with Shad Byrnes moving up from the subs to a starting assignment. Byrnes leaves little to be desired behind the plate, while at the platter he's already shaping up as a long, left-handed hitter—possibly the outstanding sticker on the squad.

Louis Reycroft, John Lavery and Jim Busfield, another classy southpaw swinger, will probably make up the starting outfield. Busfield will be the third brother to play baseball under Ostergren at Arlington.

The pitching will come along. Joe Keefe, a 6.1 inch sub last year, has shown promise of developing into a winner. Sophomore Joe Keohane, a southpaw, can really toss 'em up. Chester Taylor, Larry Flynn and Bill Coveney will be pushed up to starting assignments when they're ready—GILLOOLY

Nate Andrews To Hurl Sunday

By BILL GRIMES

NEW YORK, April 7—Nate Andrews, who has won the respect of everyone, will make his first appearance on the mound in a regular game when the Braves play the Bears in Newark Easter Sunday.

After a week's absence from the training camp at Choate School, Andrews returned to the squad a week ago last Monday. With the permission of Manager Bob Coleman, Nate has been conditioning himself. Until he pitched batting practice at Bristol, last Sunday, Andrews had spent most of his time running around the dirt track and warming up. He did attempt to pitch to the batters one day in the cage but he was so wild, he quit.

Coleman told Andrews to take as much time as he wanted to round into shape and when he felt that he was ready to go, to let him know.

Yesterday afternoon, just before the Braves broke camp at Choate, Andrews informed Coleman that all of the soreness in his arm had gone and that he wanted to pitch Sunday.

He has taken off 25 pounds, his weight varying a pound or so either way from day to day. He stated that he is lighter than at any time since 1931. A year ago Nate was 212 and he was known as "Bo Bo." Just before leaving Choate School yesterday he was 188.

DiMag Surprises In First Session

Naturally it may have been just one of those things, such as a golfer making a hole-in-one his first time on a course, but critics are liable to see some significance in the fact Vince DiMaggio got two hits and behaved himself flawlessly in the field yesterday, the first day he has been with the Pittsburgh Pirates this spring, according to the Associated Press.

The critics may see this as an indictment of northern training, as, with no more preparation than a haircut and shave, DiMaggio was able to do quite as well as his teammates, who have been enjoying the rigors of northern training for a month, more or less.

DiMaggio came to terms just a few minutes before the Bucs went on the field to drop a 6 to 3 decision to the Cleveland Indians.

News of other major league clubs:

DODGERS—It's Infielder Dixie Walker now. Manager Leo Durocher has decided to play the veteran outfielder at third base, while Durocher himself will handle the second basing job.

CARDINALS — Billy Southworth moves his Cardinals from their spring training camp to St. Louis today. The club will have a day of rest before Saturday's first city series game with the Browns.

REDS—The Reds will get more workouts today in preparation for their week-end games with the Chicago Cubs and Louisville. The Reds still are in the dark as to the ability of Chucho Ramos. He played three innings in the outfield against Indianapolis yesterday. Didn't get a chance in the field and was safe on an error on his only trip to the plate.

BROWNS — The Browns get their final spring training workout today before leaving tomorrow for St. Louis. Catcher Frank Mancuso expected his swollen ankle to ease up in time for the final practice session.

TIGERS—Manager Steve O'Neill has stuck to his regular lineup for the game today with Camp Breckenridge, except that Paul Richards will make his first appearance behind the plate. Chuck Hostetler may replace Roger Cramer in centerfield.

WHITE SOX—Manager Jimmy Dykes will toss pitchers Johnny Humphries, Ed Lopat and Gordon Maltzberger against the Cubs today at George Field, near Lawrenceville, Ill., as the Sox try to make it two straight over their city rivals.

CUBS—Paul Derringer, Bill Fleming and probably Paul Erickson are scheduled for mound duty against the White Sox today. Derringer has been late in working into form, having sprained an ankle in the first workout of the season.

YANKEES—The world champions, in the throes of a losing streak, face more trouble today when they entertain Connie Mack's undefeated Philadelphia Athletics. Hank Borowy and Lefty Johnson were expected to work on the mound for the Yanks.

GIANTS—Manager Mel Ott has another "youth" who looks like a comer. He is Louis Polli, 40-year-old pitcher who worked three innings against Jersey City yesterday and held the Little Giants hitless. He is the property of Jersey City, but Ott is giving him the once-over.

SENATORS—Early Wynn and Roger Wolff, allowing only two wind-blown safeties, hurled the Nats to a 1-0 victory over Baltimore yesterday.

PHILLIES—It was good hit, no field for the Phils as they defeated the Boston Red Sox yesterday. Manager Freddy Fitzsimmons' crew connected for 11 safe blows, but made three errors.

Workman Out

NEW YORK, April 7—On his way here from Cheats School Charlie Workman, the Braves' right fielder, was stricken with a sacroiliac and will be out of the line-up for several days.

Before leaving the training camp, Workman complained that his back was lame. He had a cold and figured that it had settled in his back. When his train was about a half hour out of the Grand Central Station, Workman felt a snap in his back and had to be assisted out of his chair and to his hotel.
